

Has Eight Thousand Books

The college library, located in the administration building, is the largest of any other class room. It now has a collection of over eight thousand volumes and subscribes to 111 periodicals. This wide selection of books and magazines offers the students of Northwestern A. and S. ample opportunity to do research in almost any field and the privilege of reading many enjoyable books.

Mrs. Lela K. Pratt, M. A., has been librarian at Northwestern A. and S. since 1942. Mrs. Pratt is a graduate of the University of Oklahoma and is now state editor of the chairman of the Oklahoma division of the American Association of University Women.

To fit Mrs. Pratt in her work, a freshman and a sophomore are chosen each year to become student library assistants. Returning for his second year of library work is Kenneth Cantwell who graduated from Wyandotte high school, Kenneth to become a chemical engineer and is now vice-president of the Engineers' club as well as president of the Phi Theta Kappa.

Rayden Barish
Miss Rayden Barish, a freshman student from Salina, Okla., is not going into new work as she is the library staff. Rayden experienced three years of library service in high school and completed a degree in educational education.

Although sophomores as well as freshmen are allowed to profitably for those who do not learn them, the student is automatically entitled to the use of the library for the semester by paying the library fee at the time of enrollment.

Every book taken from the library must be checked out by the borrower at the loan desk. Cards must be filed out for every book, magazine or pamphlet. The borrower must place on these cards the call number of the book, the author, the title, and his own name and address.

In many courses offered in this college, outside reading is necessary. Therefore, to make the proper books available to the greatest number of students, many books are placed on reserve. These books, generally used in the

About A Party!

Mexican Chili Supper Held

The traditional service for Eta Upsilon Gamma chapter was presented following a chili supper Monday, Oct. 4, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Grobb. Hostesses for the affair were Elizabeth Grobb and Doris Parker, assisted by Marian Matton.

The chili home was gaily decorated in Mexican colors. Vignettes arranged in a basket made an attractive centerpiece for the table.

Flowers honored were Doris Brown, Barbara Robinson, Barbara Spence, Jo Nellie Furnish, Barbara McAuley, Patsy Hatfield, and Jerry Brown.

Others attending were Gwen Glendon, Phyllis Jordan, Rosemary Grubb, Frances Hill, Mary McKusky, Mary Joe Frapp, and Mary Matlock, active members; Mary Jane Speer, sponsor; and Marion Matton, a special guest.

BREEZE AND I

Enjoying of this delight. Now that we've had our bathing suit, let's get down to business. COME HOME ALL MEN!

Official Homecoming in to see take place at Northwestern. A festive day has been planned, not for the students' enjoyment, but for all former students of this college. Two of the four joint college teams in the state will provide part of the reason for coming home. Let it be pointed out at this time, that unlike some schools, this will be the "Big" game of the season.
