A Line O' Type
BY BILL GOODNER
It is over an hour there's no line like this! We all hope that you think that Northeastern is just a school, but Friday, all plans at the college are being centered on Nov. 18. It is a day of excitement that you will never forget.

We hope that the Wind has been at college news your way and kept you informed about all the happenings. The staff will be glad to see you at the office in the VA building when you are here. If you have a chance to change that's taken at "Star Line" since you've been a student here.

Students To Build Short Wave Station
Roy Campbell's radio club is fast progressing. The amplifier in the radio building is now completed. This amplifier is being used primarily at the present for the square dance club.

SCHOOL SPIRIT
When the Vikings returned from their victorious onslaught against Cameron they were greeted by a group of white-robed nuns. These nuns (which were painted by the students who wished the Norwegians and their coaches) were YEA WINNERS, WFLC O'NEALS, HOME, NICE GOING RYAN, CARL, JESS and a THANKS!

BULLETIN
Miss Giggles, biological science instructor at the college, has been elected chairman of the college department reorganization committee at a faculty meeting Tuesday afternoon. Dean Martin has been elected chairman of the members (Dean Martin, Mrs. Gladys C. Ryan, Ted Walsh, Miss Giggles).

Campus Ready For Annual Homecoming Celebration; Eight Girls Seeking Crown

With the completion of the staff organization, the 1950 Viking Homecoming celebration is ready to begin, reported Margaret Wooten, public relations secretary. The Viking Homecoming celebration is scheduled to begin on Friday, Nov. 11.

A dance and a conference game with the Norman team will climax the day's activities. Eight college girls are looking forward to the coronation ceremony which will highlight the homecoming activities with the girl crowned homecoming queen for 1950.

The homecoming program is being planned by the public relations secretary, Margaret Wooten. The program will include a dance, a conference game with the Norman team, and a coronation ceremony.

Phi Sigma Give Cabin Party

In spite of a gloomy, rainy day which disrupted plans for a Phi Sigma cabin party at Hill Grove farm Oct. 21, plans were immediately made for a cabin party.

Members and pledges of Phi Sigma met at the cabin at Hill Grove at 8:30 for the cabin party. The committee for the party included Morris Lee Frye, chairman, Bill Gaines, and Keith Bond.

A roaring fire was kindled in the fireplace and the guests feasted on hot dogs, potato chips, coffee and marshmallows. Small talk, dancing, card games, group singing, and songs by Dale Smith, who accompanied himself on a guitar, provided the entertainment for the evening.

Student Wads

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Welch, Stillman, Oklahoma, announce the marriage of their daughter, Faye, to Robert Crain, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Crain of Oklahoma City. The double ring ceremony took place at 4 o'clock, Oct. 16 at the First Baptist church.

The bride wore a carriage of white tulle. Her mother, of honor was her twin sister, Mrs. Paul Welch. Mr. and Mrs. Crain are now residing in Fort Smith, Arkansas. The bride is a graduate of Stillman high school, and attended Stillman College for two years, where she was a member of the Sigma Kappa chapter. Mr. Crain served in the armed forces for several months during World War II.

Sophies Reign

It was on that green bean and beef it there—
Girls: Remove all combs and pins from your beautiful hair—
Boys: Part that hair in the middle—what looks!
Now lotion, and tote those heavy old books—
Cause the sophies will get you if you don't wash out—
So when you come thru that back gate you'll better not about.

Quick! off the sidewalk—look who's comin'.
A sople thinking up new ways to keep us runnin'.
Smile sweetly and say "Howdy" or "Hello"

Because this week the sophies are running the show—
And they would love to intimidate us to the 23rd degree—
And they will, no matter how hard we try.
Harry and eat and maybe we won't have to carry their dishes—
But you take us out of the window by our feeble wits—
As the sophies pour down on us they'll watch you and make you feel as if you were a fly.

Next year you will know the meaning of upper classman life—
But for now just keep walking that plank line—
And Term Work will be over in a short time.

Whom Rem and Thank You, Ma'am

Masquerade Dance Given by Freshmen

The freshman class entertained the student body with a masquerade dance in the gymnasium Oct. 22.

The gym was decorated seasonally and colorfully with three groups of black and orange crepe paper strips spiraling down from the center ceiling light, which was made to look like a large, glowing orange paper ball. The floor was covered with orange crepe paper, and the walls were festooned with red and white streamers.

by a haze of haze on the gym floor. A canopy, made of crepe and black crepe paper, was over the main entrance to the gym. In the center of the floor directly under the light, was a tall corn shock, topped with small stalks of an autumn field flower and a crepe paper pumpkin. From the bottom of the shock peeped out several small Jack-o-lanterns.

Don Spry, Elusive From Tulsa, Scores Norsemen Touchdowns

Northwestern A & M's values were reflected in the game at Lawton, Okla., October 25. The loss tumbling Cameron from the undefeated ranks in conference play.

Don Spry, scored all three Viking touchdowns. The first came in the second quarter on a 65 yard pass play from quarterback Sherman Wilson and the other two on ground plays in the final period.

Substitution?

Free substitution is destroying college football!

So says Harvey Harman, coach of Rutgers, in November, December. But in the same article, THE PLATOON SYSTEM: IS IT RUNNING FOOTBALL? Start "Hot" Bluff of Army defense specialization.

Wilson, smooth ball handler of the Viking T, hit Spry with an aerial at midfield. The first half-back backfield in the final period had Coach Robertson's single-wing offense played an important part in the victory with a punting strategy that tired the Apaches.

Eastern Fire Burns Norse

Eastern A&M's Mountaineers of Wilburton took the Norsemen to a game at Lawton, Okla., October 25. The loss tumbling Cameron from the undefeated ranks in conference play.

Neo Leads Opponents

Through October 24, Northwestern's record of three wins and three losses disclosed the fact that the Norsemen have a slight edge in their favor over their six opponents.

Leading the regular runners in rushing is Gene Holland, T guard halfback, who occasionally runs on the single wing attack. He has picked up 126 total yards on 29 rushes for an average of 4.33 yards per try.

Northern Is Norse Opponent

From their victory over the Cameron Apaches last week, the Norsemen will attempt to extend their victory string tomorrow night at the expense of Northern's Harvinton. Northwestern defeated the Harvinton last year, 20 to 6.

Coach E. A. (Bud) Robertson's single wing will still be hampered by an old injury and will probably see some action.

The Vikings will go into the game as favorites by virtue of their 2-1 record record. Next holds down the cellar position in the conference, having no record against 5 defeats.

Other letters that will be fighting for Northwestern are Dean Baker, 125 lbs, senior fighter from Afton; George Cowherd, 118 lbs, and a freshman in Tulsa's Golden Glove tournament; Don Sheth, 150 lbs, from Tulsa; Frank Holland, 200 lbs, from Claremore; Gilbert Miller, 117 lbs, from Vinita; Chief Deason, 150 lbs, from Grove. Other college letters are not listed here.
