

Federal Inspection For Cadets April 19

Plans Call For Parade

Federal inspectors for the local AFROTC unit will be held April 18. According to the air science department here, the inspection team will arrive in Miami the night of April 18. Captain Leonard J. Sherrow, commander of the local unit and the team's leader, will be in charge.

Busy Schedule Planned For Link Train

Plans for cadets here are regularly scheduled for two days during the week. Special schedules will be made for the link train, especially equipped with flying instruments, to give the cadets a somewhat busy schedule of flying, Captain Sherrow said.

Military Ball To Be April 28

Miami's country club will be the scene of the 5th annual AFROTC military ball to be held April 28. Plans are being made at the present time to make this year's ball the best in the history of the air science department here.

11 Students Named Here In Initiative

Eleven students were initiated into the Phi Theta Kappa organization this semester. To receive this honor the student must be regularly enrolled in the college division and carrying at least 12 hours per week, 12 of which must be in the school of arts and sciences. At the time of election the student must be in the upper 10 percent.

NEO Honors Seniors; Plans Are Out-lined

One of the biggest days of the year on the campus of Northeastern A&M college will get underway on Friday, April 20. This special day pays tribute to the seniors who are leaving the college.

Twister Wrecks Farm Buildings

A devastating tornado tip-toppled nothing standing. An open road was left in its wake. The twister struck the farm buildings just as a few minutes past midnight Monday. The damage estimated by the agriculture department here is $50,000.

Four Cadets Honored by AFROTC Here

Capt. J. J. Sherrow, professor of air science, has announced that four men have been elected to serve as cadet honor council members for the first of May in the college corps.

Sadie Hawkins Honored Here; Day-Long Fete

Sadie Hawkins Day went over with a big bang as per usual. There isn't a cotton pickin' thing left of the flimsy gun powder or brown liquid stuff, only the memory of a gay time.

Annual Deadline Met Successfully

The annual deadline has been met. The last of the annual work was completed before the Easter vacation. Jackie Rucker, sponsor of the annual, would like to remind students that the first of May is getting near.

Today

By RUTH ANN GARRETT

Wear Anything
This is the time of the year when most any kind of dress is suitable. It is very hard to decide if you should start during those who use summer skirts. The tapered pants seem to be very popular in the campus for casual dress. Spring skirts are appearing soon in very bright colors.

Many of you are probably faced with the worry of how to wear your hair this summer. All styles are popular, however, most of the fading models have already had their tresses chopped off. Did you know that the usual rate of scalp hair growth is about three-eighths of an inch a month? Hair grows faster during the summer than in the winter, and faster during the day than at night.

The latest fashion the girls have taken from the boys is a tie back that is used as a scatter pin.

Clothing manufacturers are already worrying about fall styles. They are predicting that the boys will return to classes wearing the most colorful cords ever. Did you know that in one eastern college "weeds" is an "who dresses up all the time, while on a campus not too far away being called a "weed" is a compliment, much like that of a horse.

That rock band that Bill Haley and his Comets have done so much to promote turns up again in a live wire type of song, "Paper Boy," the under-casting of Decca's "See You Later Alligator." Incidentally, talented Mr. Haley co-authored this tune and does a great job on it.

This rock has already made a big hit with the jassers and is still rising.

That crowd pleasing, English David Whitfield, with his dreamy voice and good looks is at his best on his latest Lesonsky offering. The top side of the circle, "When You Love the One You Love," is a moving ballad. He is a real gene orchestra backstop.

The song is already becoming an all-American best seller and is being led, "Angelia," isn't it? Bill Gray and Columbia Records form a bit team with a solid record of "Angelia," "The Grass is Greener" and "The Grass is Greener" in another ballad telling the story of a soldier who went off to war and left his bride-to-be. It's done in march tempo with a tremendous chora background and vocal lead.

MUSICAL TO BE GIVEN 3 TIMES

The story reaches the climax when Billy can't get into heaven because he hasn't done enough good on earth. So he goes back to earth to visit Julie and his little girl Louise for one day to see what he can do for them. It's a bit of a surprise ending and the tenderness of the last moment of the play when the beautiful "You'll Never Walk Alone" is sung, promises not a dry eye in the theatre.

Sprinkle fish fillets with salt, pepper and paprika; arrange strips of onion and green pepper over the fillets; dot with butter or margarine. Wrap the fillets and vegetables in squares of aluminum foil and place on baking sheet. Bake in a moderate (375 degree) oven about 25 minutes. Slice the foil on top with a kitchen scissors and serve in the packages.

Iranian New Year Intrigues Faculty and Friends at Fete

A New Year's party on March 24? It seems a bit confusing but in reality there is a very good reason. In Iran the people celebrate New Year on March 21, the first day of spring.

The Iranian students on the campus of NEO brought this custom with them, and had their traditional New Year's party Saturday March 24 in the art gallery at the college.

The Iranian students want to promote better understanding and friendship between the American and foreign students. American students who are interested in Iranian customs and traditions can help this plan along.

Old Customs
In Iran this 2000-year-old festival holiday is called Norooz. This is a Persian word meaning new day.

For five days all offices are closed. The schools are closed for seven days. Everyone has open house and families and friends visit. The first day everyone visits the head of the family, the second day they visit the next, and so on down the line until everyone has been visited.

The Norooz celebration goes on for 12 days and on the 13th day everyone leaves the town and goes to the picnic all the young girls and boys who want to announce the different foods and fruits serving.

PONY EXPRESS BREAKS DOWN—Sadie Hawkins Day was the scene of this calamity. In the background is Beverly Hutchinson, excited but laughing. H. A. Berkey is looking for Tom Peares, the driver of the car. In the lower picture is Tom Peares and Ted Wofford with Peares' educated mule, Ala Baba. Schrappe and the truck driver, is standing to the left patting dismally at the tire.

Tornado Leaves Total Destruction

Future Officers Receive Training

Probationary AFJOC members showing exceptional interest in all phases of their training and qualifications of becoming cadets or non-commissioned officers will undergo a special training program here.

Cadet Leonard J. Sherron, ROTC instructor, said that giving the cadets an opportunity to become familiar with all science procedures, command, etc., this year will much better qualify them for assuming leadership next year.

Cadets chosen to receive this training will wear a red stripe on the spauld of their uniforms. Training will get under way as soon as the annual ROTC Federal

Netmen Face Northern in State Finals April 13th
 College tennis has had its ups and downs during the current season. Weather and other deterrents have kept aspirants of the game in the doldrums. The season's victories have been extracted from only the hapless high school cadets of OMA, only to take a shellacking from such stalwarts as Muskogee and Tallapoosa. Netmen No. 1, Charles Nicholson, led in his second year as he was by Taliquette's No. 1, Charles Nicholson, in his second year. For Malheur here comes...
