JOHNSTON MURRAY
GOVERNOR

GREETINGS TO STUDENTS AND FACULTY
OF NORTHEASTERN OKLAHOMA A & M COLLEGE

Many people today, when they consider the future, do so with apprehension and fear. There is reason for that fear, but also reason for optimism.

I incline toward the latter. It is because I have faith in the ideals of our college students and their teachers.

College students are the most important product our state is now producing. It's on you we depend to build Oklahoma into the greatness of which she is capable.

From your ranks will come our leaders of tomorrow. The contribution you will make for a better world depends on how much knowledge and wisdom you store up now.

Many mistakes of the past stand badly in need of correction. Few problems of our day must be solved by you.

Therefore, students and faculty alike must maintain the free flow of ideas, the studious approach to all problems, and the ideal of maintaining a common effort for the common good. Throughout history, that has been the approach of men remembered for outstanding accomplishment.

It is your heritage, and also your new frontier.

Johnston Murray
Governor

Members in inset: Elmer Harber, R. T. Stuart.

UNDER THE DYNAMIC leadership of Dr. Bruce G. Carter, President of Northeastern A & M college for the past ten years, this college has tripled its enrolment, doubled its plant facilities, and in many ways has become a bulwark of education for this section of the state and nation.

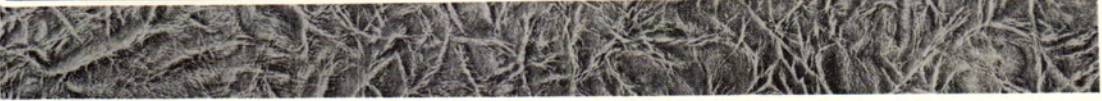

It was his fifth anniversary as president of Northeastern A & M that Dr. Carter said as follows: "It has been said that the education of a child does not begin when that child is six years of age, starting to school; nor does it begin at the age of one and a half or two years, when the child might begin to talk; but that the education of a child should begin with the child's grandmother."

Dr. Carter's accomplishments have been not only steady, but in many respects phenomenal. His greatest claim to deserving honor is his tireless pursuit of long range objectives, his unwavering faith in the future, and his keen insight into human relations.

He will not "rest on his laurels" once an immediate objective is reached, but immediately he plans for the next, and the next. This is the true measure of our college executive.

It is for us to remember that behind or back of every great institution is the shadow of a man — and no institution can be greater than its leadership. It is for us to remember as a faculty member put it "Things don't just happen — they are planned."

—THE STUDENTS OF NORTHEASTERN A & M

Melvin A. Shipley, Dean of the college, has lent a steady hand that has pervaded all departments of the college.

Sound practices in finance and general good guidance in all educational principles have placed our college's programs on sound footings.

He can be found on the job at all hours of the day and much of the time at nights—working to keep his house in order.

Dear Miss Ward,

I can't understand just what went amiss in the mail, but I have only just now received your photographs. It is true, I have been out of town for a few days, but not a sufficient length of time to warrant this long delay.

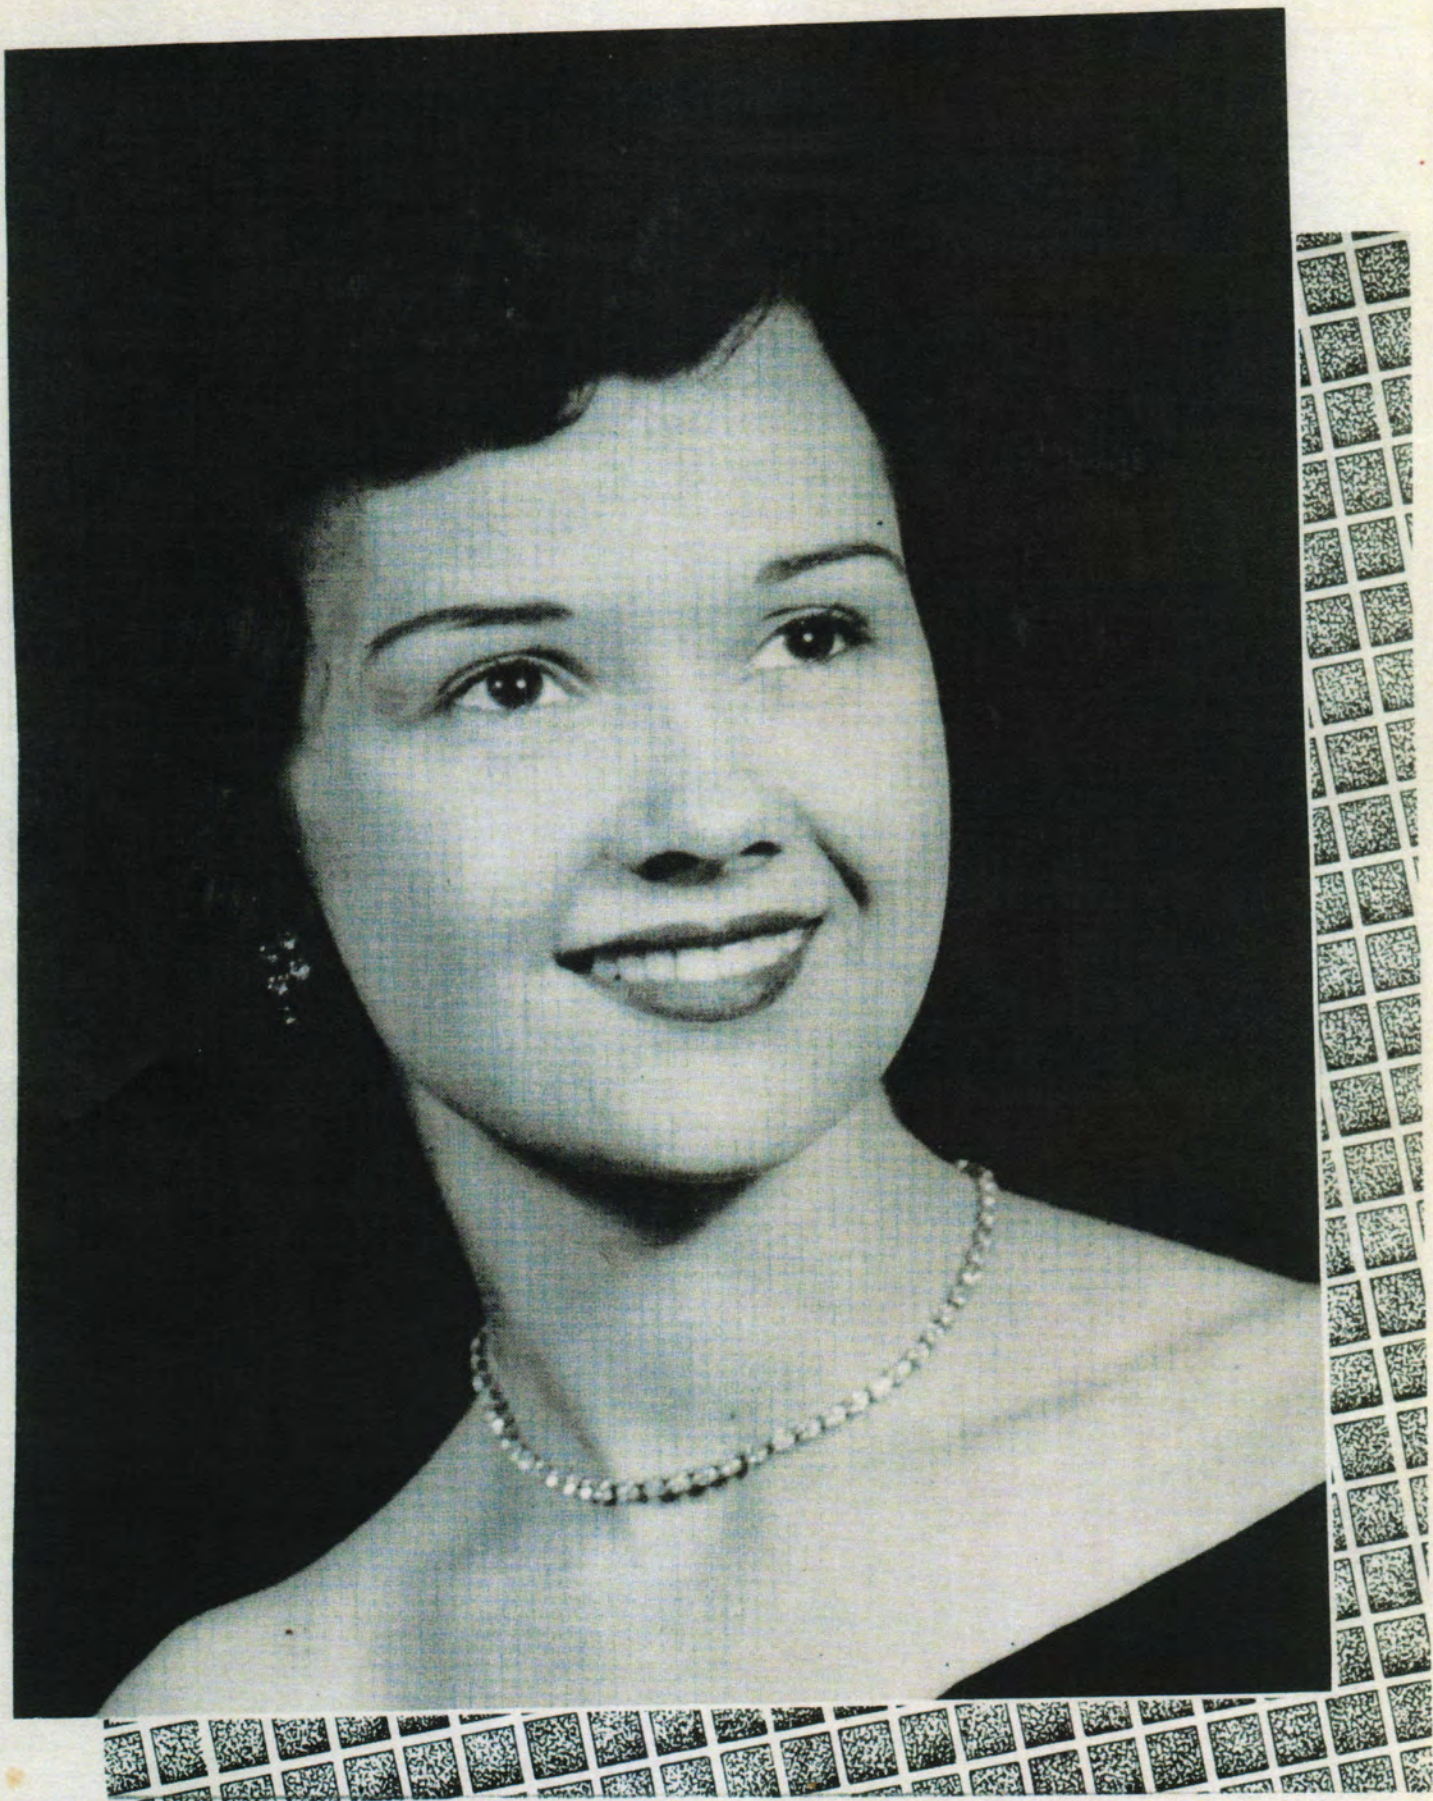

I'm terrible sorry to have missed your deadline, and am answering immediately in the hope that perhaps you were able to await the answer.

Not having your letter of last year, I don't remember how many of the girls I was to select,--that is whether there was to be a first, second, and third, or just one, so since there are only five photographs, I will select a first and second. I have written the numbers on the back.

Thank you for having chosen me, and I hope that this reaches you in time to avoid losing the confidence you have placed in me.

Kindest regards,

Dale Robertson

JACK WARD

Jack Ward, a business major from Locust Grove, has had a busy two years here at Northeastern. Both years he has been a member of the Golden Norsemen football team, and a member of the "O" Club. Jack, is president of the Student Council, which is about the highest honor one can attain here. Jack is also a boxer and a member of the Business Club. Not overlooking his grades, he has a B average.

IMOGENE HUNTER

Imogene's activities have been numerous these two years. She is a business major and is a member of the business club. She also is affiliated with B.S.U., Aggiettes, and is Secretary of the Sophomore class. Imogene is also secretary of the Student Council, Aggie Queen, and the 1953 Viking Queen.

CAROLE WARD

Carole, a sophomore Education major, from Miami, has been very active these last two years at Northeastern. She is Secretary of Sigma Iota Chi Sorority, and Treasurer of Phi Theta Kappa. Carole was also a member of the Student Council, Norse Stars, and filled the post of Society Editor for the Viking. She was the Phi Sigma Nu queen candidate for Viking Queen, and a member of the Dean's Honor Roll.

GLENN PLUMB

Glenn hails from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. During his two years, Glenn has played football, baseball, and been a member of the "O" Club, and the Engineers Society. Glenn is serving as Cadet Colonel of the ROTC. He is a major in engineering and is a member of Phi Theta Kappa.

GORDON HATCHER

Gordon, a Theology major from Commerce is a very active student. Heading the list of a variety of activities is editorship of the 1953 Viking. A freshman, he is a member of Phi Theta Kappa, B.S.U., for which he is reporter, and the Press Club. Gordon fills the posts of circulation manager of the Norse Wind, vice-president of the Oklahoma State Collegiate Press Association, and College Red Cross Representative.

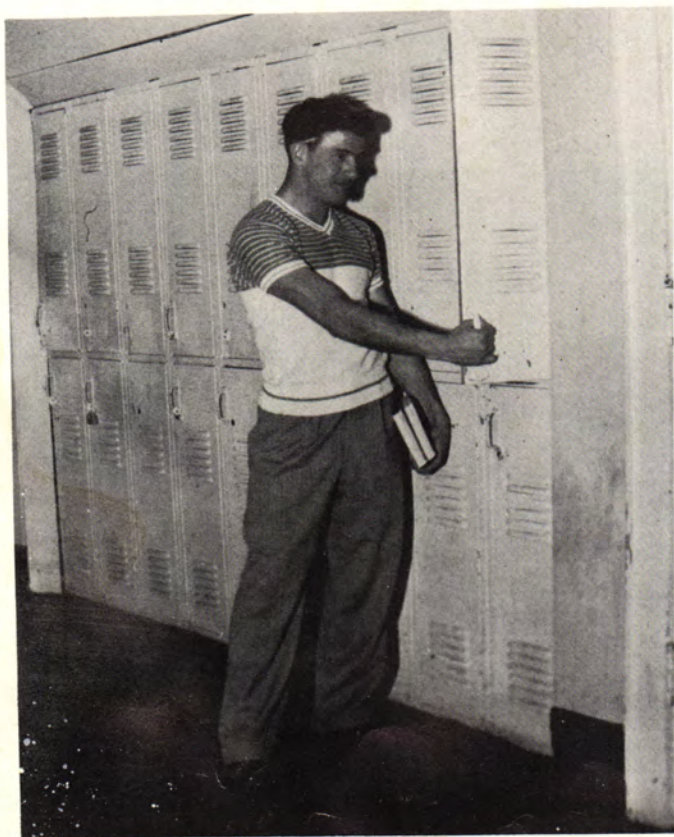

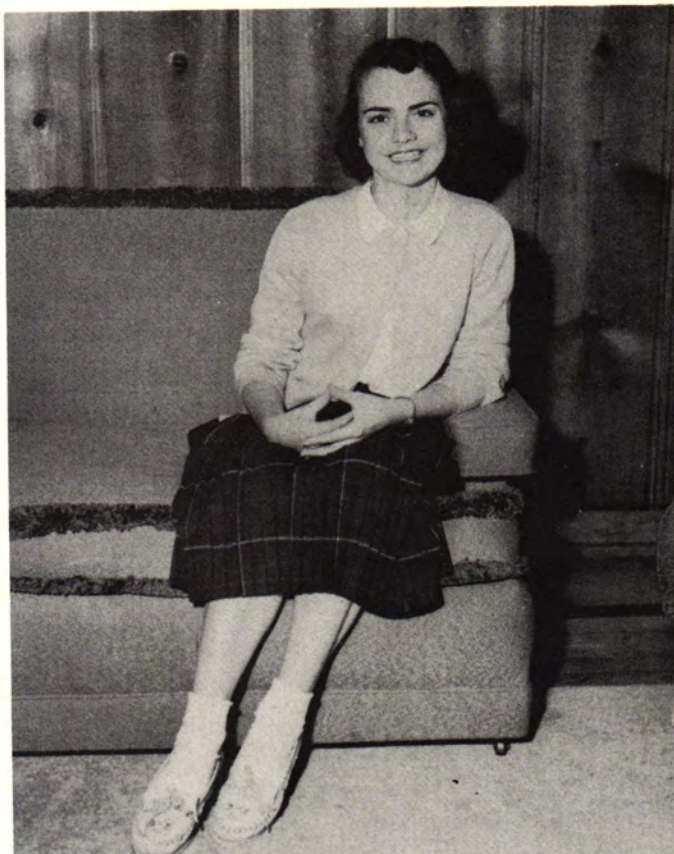

JANE MABON

Jane, a speech major from Miami, though a freshman has been very active this year here at North-eastern. Her activities have included singing in the chorus, and participating in various speech activities, having gone to contests. Jane is also treasurer of the Sigmas and a member of Phi Theta Kappa. Jane's grades entitled her to a place on the Dean's Honor Roll.

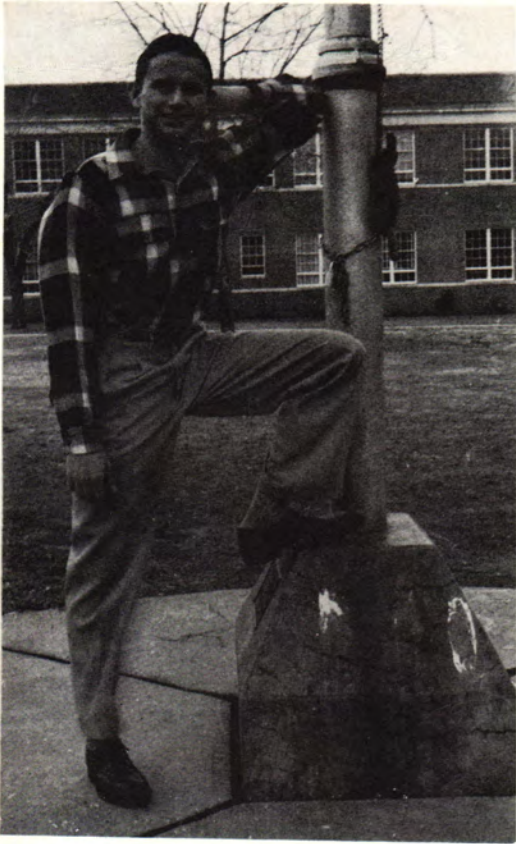

MARY RUTH RUST

Mary Ruth is one of the smiling personalities that will be found on the campus. She is a voice major from Joplin. Aside from various music courses, she is enrolled in Chorus, and sings in the College Quartet. Mary Ruth's other activities include work on the annual staff, and Eta Upsilon Gamma Sorority. She also finds time to work in the registrar's office.

BRUNO CLARA

Bruno, a business major, has come all the way from Pennsylvania. Bruno is recognized by everyone as being one of the friendliest students here. Bruno is also very active, being the Student Council Representative of the International Relations Club, a member of the Business Club, and a member of Phi Theta Kappa. He also plays basketball on the intramural teams.

SPORTS

O Club

A bull session before the meeting.

Too much credit cannot be given Bud Savage (above) for his fine work with both the line and backfield. The gentleman from Texas will never be forgotten by the boys he coached.

Publicity Director Homa Thomas was invaluable over the season. Many of the boys who got scholarships to other schools have Mr. Thomas to thank for it.

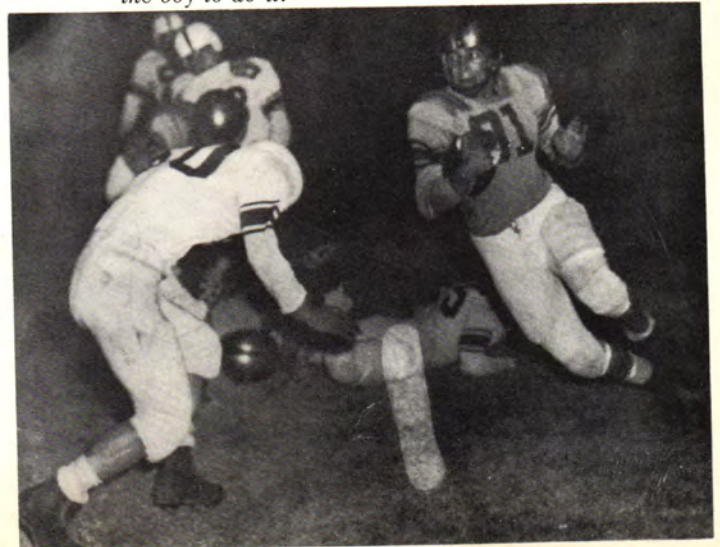

Football

All Stater Bob Baker turns the corner and heads for the score that broke Coffeyville's back. A sophomore from Fairland, Bob was well known and well liked by the fans and his fellow players alike. He performed his full-back duties to perfection.

Herman "Chief" Miller was a defensive rock, and always good for a laugh. The 200 pounder was a cinch for All State, because of his impressive record. On many nights the opposition made minus yards over his position, and he was murder on the passer.

Husky Paul Scott of Broken Arrow, played tackle for the Norsemen, and did it with all he had. His fellow players consider it a crime that he did not make All State. Powerful line blocking, especially ends, was Paul's specialty, but he did all his job well.

Bill Caves, one of the few 60 minute men on the team is pictured below. Bill, a center by trade and linebacker for sheer sport, made All State with ease. Tulsa, his home; sophomore his class.

Right tackle Ed Gilliam of Sapulpa grins at left. His big 54 was to be seen in all the pile ups, and his ferocious down field blocking was one of the big reasons he was chosen All State. This being his sophomore year, Ed made every play count on offense and defense, both, another tribute to his ability.

Guard James Huxtable clinches his fist and grins the fact that he won't use it. Why should he, when he can use his shoulders well enough to make All State? A demon on linebackers and line blocking expert were Huck's attributes. He was also honorary team captain.

End Don Tidmore of Holdenville charges above. Don was an all round good wing man; determined blocker, excellent receiver, and convincing in his deception on fake passes.

Howard (Goose) Mahanes, Vinita sophomore end who divided the starting assignment with Don Tidmore was the life of the party both on the field and off.

Scatback Jim McDanials of Tulsa (81) evades outstretched hands and strikes out for pay dirt, with the aid of Paul Scott (56). Jim suffered a compound fracture of a finger, and a dislocated knee, and still was one of the outstanding backs.

Stolid Ben Haning, sophomore from Wewoka, was a deserving All Stater at defensive guard. Sheer force his main weapon, jarring tackles the product. His position over center was never threatened all year; if Norsemen foes made yards, it was somewhere besides over the middle.

Dwayne Sullenger at the left was the only freshman quarterback this year, and did a fine job. He has a big job cut out for next year.

Halfbacks Bill Scantlen (left) and Jerry Dodds are pictured together in their chores. Bill, a sophomore from Muskogee, has been standard equipment in the Norseman attack for two years now and his presence will be greatly missed. Jerry, on the other hand, is a freshman, and has another year to play the same fine brand of ball he played this year. A three sport letterman, Jerry is most versatile, and speedy.

Jim McDanials looks very much at ease with the pig skin in his hands. And well he should, because it was there so much during the season. Jim is a freshman from Tulsa.

John Henry Lawrence, hometown boy made good, was quarterback and safety man, to boot. Although hindered by a shoulder injury, he was a sharp passer, and nothing could hinder his play calling ability. John was an All Stater.

Johnny Sheppard (68) skirts left end and observes the competition has for running room. John is back after a year in the army. He's from Wetumka, Okla., and plays offense and defense at half back.

Howard Collins is another of the returning veterans who came back to school and made a name for themselves. Howard is from Tulsa, and as a guard he cut down backs like a shears.

Big Jerry Hipps, also from Florida, throws his weight around from the tackle position. A dependable and crafty blocker, Jerry.

In the action shot above Bob Kauffman is seen doing the thing that made him Juco All American. His ability to keep on going after he caught a pass was a spearhead in the attack of the Norsemen. Bob moved much larger tackles to open holes for the backs as well, and then protected down field. Bob was also a basketball player, in all an excellent athlete.

His 75 showing big, Glen Cone gazes complacently on. As defensive halfback, he did a fine job for the Norsemen, and is to be complimented on his string of intercepted passes.

Wood of Miami proved his worth as a utility back this year, on both offense and defense. He's a freshman and can be looked to for more of the same next year.

Above Howard Wagner smiles wider than any Norsemen foe ever saw him. Howard was a superior defensive end, and had he not suffered a hand fracture, he would really have made a name for himself in this conference. As it is, he has lots of valuable experience for next year.

"Flying Faymon" Holmes seems perfectly at ease, waiting for the snap, but Norsemen foes discovered he wasn't so relaxed when they hit him.

Freshman end, Jerry Hunter, was a real hustler from Pryor. On both offense and defense he proved himself valuable.

Below, Jim Rusher awaits the next development, as he did at his line-backing post. Big Jim had his share of the scoring from fullback and extra point kicking.

Speedy, versatile Franklin Taylor surveys the situation. At guard, on either offense or defense, Frank was always on the bottom of the pile.

If ever the football saying, "Low man wins" were personified, it would be in Ben Haning. He made such an art of lowering his head and bulling through, that he made All State at it. Ben is a soph guard from Wewoka.

Sophomore All Stater, John Lawrence, shows his number 90 at left and smiles modestly for all the work he did at quarterback and safety man. He's the best in the business at both, and although he had a shoulder injury, Long John was invaluable all through the season.

Pictured below is football and basketball coach, S. A. Robertson. Too much credit can not be given this fine mentor for his fine teams in both fields. Up till the last game of the season the Norsemen were in second place in basketball competition, and then only a lapse in defense in the last quarter kept Coach Robertson from taking his team to Amarillo for a Junior College tournament.

Earl Boyer, post man, and hook shot artist for the Norsemen, hails from Stillwater. He had a 7.3 point per game average.

Sophomore Bob Rothrock, whose home is Seminole, was one of the team's sharp passer. He was a team player, even though he had a fine set shot.

At right Bobby Carpenter of Tulsa reveals the secrets of the set shot that made him High point man several times. Bob is a freshman, and will be invaluable next year, also.

"Wee Willie" Scantlen cocks for the throw to first. The Muskogee lad was an excellent fielder and lead the pepper most of the time.

1951-52 State Baseball Champions

Since the spring sports were not under way in time for the annual last year, and since the baseball team did so fine a job, it was decided to give them a page in this year's annual. Pictured left to right, standing are Coach Thomas, Earl Boyer, Bill Caves, Jack Chilton, Bob Willibey, Bob Kauffman, John Smith, Howard Wagner, John Lawrence, Jack Beegly. Seated are Virgil Mayabb, John Barlow, Connie Legako, Jerome Haney, Bill Scantland, Bill Plumb, and Leroy Scoles.

Lefty Bob Kauffman of Nowata looks for the pitch and gets his picture instead. Bob was famous for his speed and utility.

Tulsa's pride, Bill Caves is hardly recognizable without his catchers garb. Bill was easy to pitch to when he carried a glove to the plate, but hard when he carried a bat.

Long, lanky Earl Boyer stretches for the pitch. Earl had a good record and is expected to do even better this year.

Ronnie Butterfield "stays loose" as is his custom. A real morale builder and asset to the team that won the 1951-52 State Championship in Baseball.

Another fine pitcher on Homa Thomas' staff last year was Connie Legako. A fire balling south paw, who was surprisingly good with a bat.

BOYS DORMITORY

BUSINESS CLUB

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

DORM AGGIES

PRESS CLUB

AGGIES FROM APARTMENTS

"BIG MO" INDEPENDENTS

ENGINEERS

Boxing

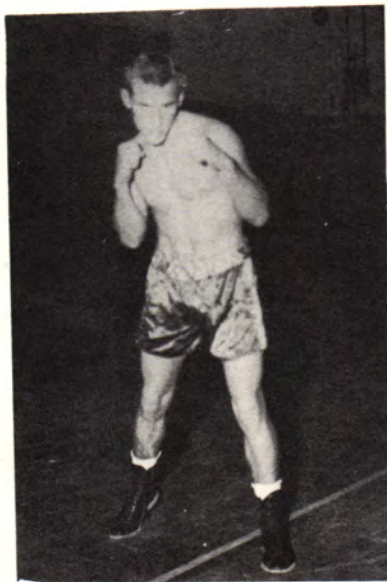

Coach Homa Thomas and his boxing team can be congratulated on their fine record this year. Their sweep of the Miami tournament is ample proof of the ability of both coach and team.

Tennis

Coach Ray Vanderburg has rebuilt the tennis team from last year, and is still in the process of rebuilding, therefore a picture was not available, but members will include Nat Gibbs, John Nail, Louis Ligoria, and Gerry Calhoun. Others are expected to come out later.

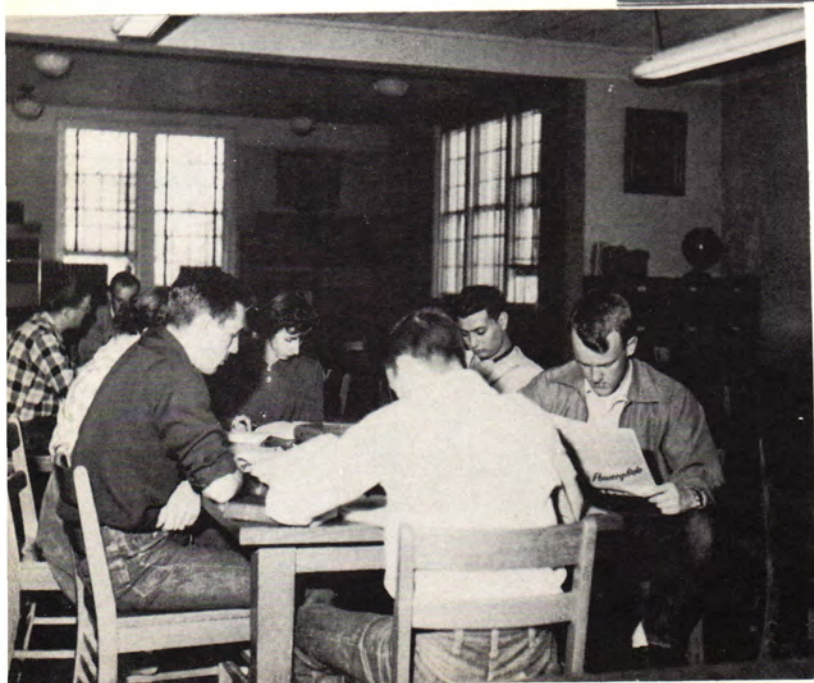

At right is Ray Vanderburg's gym class composed almost completely of foreign students: Soccer is the favorite sport, and a team is being organized.

Annual Staff

Gerry Calhoun relaxed at left. Gerry was sports editor, business manager, and production manager. Gerry and Gordon, both, burned the midnight oil many nights so that the annual could be produced.

Not pictured are Priscilla Coker, who had the sophomore pages; Phil Smith, Associate Editor, did lots of work in many fields, even to art work in an introduction. Juanita Betz was associate Society editor, and was a fine detail worker.

The College Choir voted this year to make appearances in near by towns rather than to put on an operetta. So far they have appeared at the Lions Club Christmas program, Teachers Convention at Tulsa, and Kansas State Teacher's College at Pittsburg, Kansas. The Choir, under the direction of Mr. Kenny Richards, is scheduled to appear at Chelsea, Commerce, Vinita, Nowata, Fairland, and other towns. Special numbers from the music department are provided by the college mixed quartet, Bill Hunt, trumpet soloist; and Jean Jimerson, piano soloist.

Art Employs Methods for Seeing, Feeling and Creating

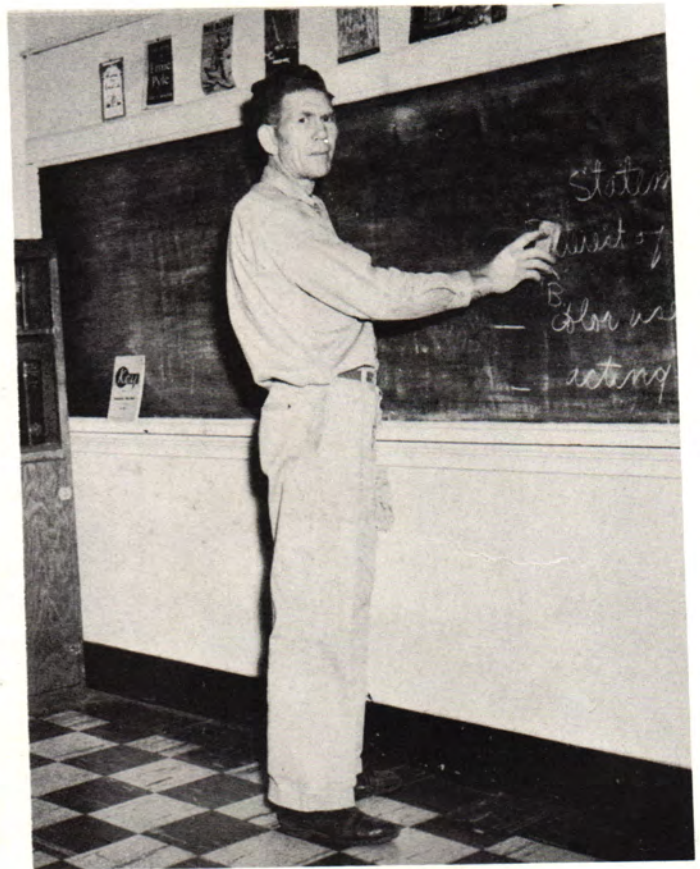

The art classes of 1952-53 were the first group to meet and work in the new gallery-class room, the only one of its kind in the Southwest. A most comprehensive exhibition schedule brought thousands of people to the college as well as provided N.E.O. art students with daily personal contact with original works of art. Paintings by the old masters, actual sculpture pieces in stone, wood, and bronze, as well as paintings by notable American magazine illustrators—Norman Rockwell, Stevan Dohomas, and Jon Whitcomb. Philbrook Art Center of Tulsa loaned many choice works from their collections for display in the college gallery. Other famous artists who loaned work for these exhibitions were, Alexandre Hogue, Lawrence T. Stevens, John O'Neil, Gene Bavinger, Louis Weinberg, Howard Whitlatch. Sculptor Bernard Frazier's bronze panels for the Kansas University War Memorial had their first public showing in the college gallery. Many Miamians loaned art pieces, including Mr. Bill Y. James and Mrs. Russell James—their great 16th century painting, Christ of the Outrages, was a feature exhibit during the year. At publication of the Viking, four shows have been held with an attendance of 3,761.

The Viking Staff extends its sincerest wish that you enjoy the 1953 edition of the year-book. We appreciate your consideration, both students and faculty, and hope you find as much pleasure in reading it as we did in producing it.

NEO A&M College Archive Collection

The Viking – the NEO A&M College Yearbook

Digital copies of The Viking, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College's annual yearbook, are available in .pdf format on the NEO website for non-commercial purposes only. Scans were created using the best available editions; where stains, color-fading, and contributed marks (usually signatures) were visible on the original they also appear in the digital copy. The edge of some pages in oversized editions may be partially lost due to width limitations on the scanning bed. NEO yearbook editions that do not appear on the website are not part of the collection at present. If you would like to donate a yearbook, please contact the NEO Library.
