

A dark, grainy photograph of a landscape. The upper portion shows the dark silhouettes of trees against a slightly lighter, overcast sky. Below the trees is a wide, flat expanse that appears to be a field or a road, stretching towards a distant horizon. The overall tone is very dark and moody.

Individuality

The answer to

Our greatest

Question of

WHO AM I?

I am me

You are you

Expressing our

Individuality

I write this poem
To someone
Who is my friend

A friend is a person
Who will stand by me
In times of trouble or strife

A friend is a companion
Who can tell me the truth
And suffer my anger

A friend is someone that Understands my failings
And forgives my shortcomings

A friend gives and gives
And doesn't mind
When I only receive

Thank you and
I love you
For being, simply, my friend.

The Staff

Mr. Jack Rucker, Advisor

Gaylen Holliday, Editor

Jeff Bachman, Assistant Editor and Photographer

Wes Townsley, Photographer

In beginning the yearbook, my staff and I were determined to do our best to illustrate as many aspects of campus life and student activities as possible. As I complete the final pages of the VIKING, I realize that our efforts only scratch the surface of life at NEO. We could not capture memories made here, but we can only try to trigger them. Our photographs lack the capacity to improve with age or to capture the excitement of the good times as memories can. And there were so many good memories — crowding seven people into the cab of the truck at three a.m. to go to Thunderbird for breakfast, cooking in popcorn poppers a spaghetti dinner with all the trimmings, snowball fights, “doing” Third Floor’s bathroom, getting egged at Halloween, pranking in, panty raids, the challenge of sneaking people into the dorm, Wednesday nights at Kansas, eight o’clock classes the morning after the night before, waltzing on the frozen reflection pool, and Spring River parties. These memories will be a few of our “remember whens” years from now.

Many individuals are responsible for the completion of the yearbook even though the staff consisted of only Jeff Bachman, Wes Downsley, and myself. Some of these individuals worked many hours toward meeting our deadlines but many more provided the moral support needed to complete the task. Mr. Jack Rucker, our advisor, provided experience, practicality, and innumerable ideas as well as hundreds of ours of his time. He was, in short, our guiding light and the backbone of our organization, Dr. Lobby Woods was our group photographer. Martha Miller, Pat Rame, Marie Mott, and LuAnn Krenz were great help. They did so much to help complete the annual. The list of those whose support was not visible, but just as important in the production of the VIKING, must begin with the instructors and secretaries of third floor Shipley. Their wit, criticism, jokes, ideas, thoughts, praise, and conversation added spice and variety to our creation. Special thanks to Gail Lashley, Phil and Dan Dool, John Stapleton, and Mike Coble for providing the comedy aspect, for their confidence, and for their support. Thanks to friends Teri Hockett and Liz Kolb for their assurance and understanding, and to Patty Holcomb for her constant encouragement.

Gaylen Holliday

NEO A&M College Archive Collection

The Viking – the NEO A&M College Yearbook

Digital copies of The Viking, Northeastern Oklahoma A&M College's annual yearbook, are available in .pdf format on the NEO website for non-commercial purposes only. Scans were created using the best available editions; where stains, color-fading, and contributed marks (usually signatures) were visible on the original they also appear in the digital copy. The edge of some pages in oversized editions may be partially lost due to width limitations on the scanning bed. NEO yearbook editions that do not appear on the website are not part of the collection at present. If you would like to donate a yearbook, please contact the NEO Library.
