Debate Group Participates In Contest

Northeastern Oklahoma A&M's debate team recently participated in their first tournament at Kansas State University. The team came back with three victories and only one loss in debate.

Three NEO students competed in the speech tournament. Betsy Stone and Chris Taylor brought home the debate honors and Dan Eischen competed in oratory competition.

NEO's debaters competed with 36 other college and university teams, dropping only to the University of Colorado, the University of Nebraska and Southwestern Missouri State College.

Miss Stone, a freshman political science major from Midwest City, is president of the debate club and senator-at-large of the freshman class.

Miss Taylor, a freshman psychology major, also from Midwest City holds the office of secretary-treasurer for the freshman class and is the student senate representative of the debate club.

Eischen is a sophomore psychology major from Oklahoma City studying to be a minister.

The next speech tournament will be held at Central State College in Edmond, Nov. 8 and 9, according to Bob White, the debate coach.

Carter Chosen Hope Director

Dr. Bruce G. Carter, president of Northeastern A&M, has been selected to serve on the board of directors of Home of Hope in Vinita.

Home of Hope is a newly established resident for mentally retarded and multi-handicapped persons eighteen years of age and over. It is a nonprofit community supported corporation directed by its board.

Presidential Poll Taken By NEO

With 1968 being the "year" of the elections, many polls are being taken to guess the outcome of the race. The Young Democrats and the Young Republicans of the NEO campus have also taken a poll.

The recently conducted poll, was taken by teams of two. These teams which consisted of one republican and one democrat, polled 435 students during the lunch hour.

The results were then tabulated by three members of Odin's Knights, a campus honor society, in the Carter Student Union.

The question and results are as follows.

"Whom do you prefer for President?"

Totals—
NIXON—204
WALLACE—281
HUMPHREY—40

DC Vacation Planned For Spring Break

An educational tour to Washington, D.C. and New York City is being planned for students of NEO's drama, humanities, social science and government classes, according to Dr. Bruce G. Carter, college president.

The 10 day trip is presently scheduled for spring break.

Washington D.C. is the first stop. Three days will be spent there, giving the students a chance to see historic structures such as the Washington Monument and the Smithsonian Institute.

New York is scheduled as a three day stop. Students will get a chance to see a Broadway show and take the ferry boat ride around Manhattan Island. The Empire State building and New York's many art museums are but a few of the sights to see in New York.

The cost per student for food, transportation (which will be by bus) and lodging is approximately $100. Students will have to plan extra money for things such as shows, entertainment and souvenirs.

This trip will be an opportunity for about 100 NEO students to visit two of the cultural centers of the United States.

In the past a trip to Mexico has been made. The trip east is being started as the off year counterpart to the Mexico trip.

Homecoming Activities Begin Early Tomorrow

By Barbara Hooper

Beautiful girls, bands and floats will be featured in Northeastern Oklahoma A&M college's annual homecoming parade tomorrow.

The climax of the day's events will be crowning of the 1968 homecoming queen during halftime activities of the football game between the Golden Norsemen and Ferrum, Va. at 8 p.m. on Robertson field.

Competing for the honors as queen candidates from campus organizations. In addition to the queen, two runners-up will be selected by a board of judges after a morning spent in visiting with the candidates.

"Great Sayings," has been chosen as the theme for the 1968 homecoming parade, scheduled to start at 3 p.m. down the main street of Miami. Queen candidates will be featured in the parade each on a float entered by her sponsoring campus group. Prizes will be offered for the best float, the winning entry receiving a prize of $25, second and third will win $15 and $10 respectively.

The schedule for homecoming includes an alumni reception at 9 a.m. in Carter Student Union; a noon luncheon of the Lettermen's club and former Norse Stars in the college cafeteria and after the parade tours of the campus.

An alumni buffet will be held at 5:30 p.m. in the Carter Student Union. Guest speaker will be alumnus David Burr, vice-president for the university community at

State Musical NEO's Next Presentation

"Oklahoma", a musical will be presented during the week of the formal opening of the new Fine Arts building in December. Oklahoma dignitaries have been invited to attend both the opening of the new building and the musical.

Tryout dates for the musical have already begun and the cast should be announced by Tuesday of next week, according to Shirli White, director of the musical.

Serving as music director of Oklahoma will be Kenneth Richards, NEO chorus instructor. Other faculty members involved in the musical will be David Froman, lighting; Jerold Graham, building of stage sets; Carl St. Clair, in charge of technical aspects and Dr. Robert Swanson will conduct the orchestra.

Sophomore Class Elections Unfair

Recently the sophomore class held elections for the class homecoming queen candidates. A table was set up in the student union and a large sign placed behind the table listed the choices.

This was the perfect setting, the perfect place to catch sophomores in their spare moments to vote. Upon approaching the table, the unaware sophomore was informed that he must be in possession of a class card or buy one at the polling place for the price of a dollar. This had to be done or the student would not be allowed to vote.

In a country where "free elections" are of major pride and on a college campus where young minds develop attitudes, is it fair, to in effect, charge voters a "poll tax"? When a member of the sophomore class is unable to vote without the price of a dollar, it is time for the class as a whole to unify and do something about the situation.

Observation of the polling area leads me to believe that many sophomores feel the same hostilities at being turned away. A dollar to quite a few college students is precious. Although many have the money to spread around, there are twice as many who cannot produce a dollar at a moments notice. If it were necessary for such a fee to be placed on the voter, why then weren't the sophomores informed well in advance?

As is evident in our society today, very few people are so concerned about voting that they would pay to do so. It is interesting to see just how many students put out their money for the privilege of being able to vote.

From a past years experience, I feel that class cards are not benefitting all who are conjoined into buying them. Members of the freshman class of 1967-68 will remember that our dollar class card was used once, as an admittance to one dance.

Advertising was displayed proclaiming 2 or 3 dances and a class outing for sophomore class card holders. Was consideration given to students who do not attend the dances? Will these students be refused the privilege to vote merely because they won't pay the price of a card they will never use?

Class unity is an important factor on any junior college campus, but can this unity be obtained at NEO by using such un-democratic tactics of running a class election?

It is now too late to have anything done about this situation. However the class, as a whole, should be certain that they are not taken advantage of again.

New Installed Phones Present Strict Penalty

Earlier this week Bell Telephone Company of Miami installed pay telephones on every floor of each dorm. They were installed on the condition that if any one of the phones were damaged in any way, all the phones in that particular dorm would be removed.

The students of each dorm should take notice that once the telephones have been misused and the telephone company removes them they will not be replaced again.

Bell telephone should also take notice that in most cases their phones would not be damaged if they would make sure they worked all the time. One simple method of keeping the telephones in constant working order is to empty the change boxes of each phone (on suggestion) every day.

Each student should be on his best to see that every phone is kept in working order, and the Bell Telephone Company should see that each student dorm has telephones that work.

NEO Plans Acre Increase

The state of Oklahoma, acting for the State Board of Regents for Higher Education, has begun condemnation proceedings in an effort to acquire some 30 acres of Fullerton family land, located immediately east of the Northeastern A&M campus.

A petition in district court here in Miami states an appeal will be made Nov. 28 to the district judge to appraise the damages to the Fullertons if the land were taken for public use.

An offer to purchase the property would then be made on the basis of the appraisal.

Dr. Bruce G. Carter, Northeastern A&M president, said the school made an offer to buy the property in July that was turned down.

The petition stated that campus expansion and the prospective establishment of an area vocational-technical school to be operated by NEO have forced the local college to seek additional land.

"We are in the process of trying to locate an area v-tech school here, but if we are not successful we still need the land to expand and build new buildings," said Dr. Carter.

Dr. Carter said the Fullerton land would mostly be used as a parking area, since the land is lower than the present campus and tends to flood occasionally.

He said new buildings probably would be constructed at the site of the large parking area presently located on the southeast portion of the campus.

The state Legislature allocated $100,000 in May to the State Board of Regents to be used for the expansion of NEO.

Dr. Carter said these funds, which have not been used as yet would be applied toward the purchase of the Fullerton land.

Drama Dept. First Prod. Termed a Hit

"The Crucible", NEO's drama departments first production of the season was what show people would term a "hit".

Opening to a sell-out crowd each night but the first, "The Crucible" played to a total of 1,150 people.

Though the audience felt some discomfort due to the seating and ventilation, they forgot it as soon as the play started.

The acting talents ranged from beginning to excellent as they always do on the amateur stage, but director David Froman succeeded in producing a uniformly fine show from these talents.

If "The Crucible" is an indication of things to come this year from the drama department, the students of NEO and the people of Northeastern Oklahoma are in for some excellent productions.

JOE HUDSPETH

Joe Hudspeth Begins Third Year At NEO

By Robert Campbell

Beginning his third year at Northeastern A&M is Joe Hudspeth, guidance counselor, student recruiter, and housing director. Hudspeth accepted the position of housing director on the resignation of Pat McGuire.

Having been in the education field for 36 years, Hudspeth spent 10 years as a high school football and basketball coach and 23 years in high school and grade school administration.

Hudspeth, a Parsons, Kansas Junior College graduate stated, "The most enjoyable part of my career has been my working with students on the college level; because they are at the crossroads of their social and vocational decisions."

"Seeing one of my former students going on and being a success is one of the highlights in my life," Hudspeth also said. Hudspeth received his bachelors degree at Northeastern State College, Tahlequah, and his masters at Oklahoma State University, Stillwater. He has done additional graduate work at OSU, Tuissa University, and Assumption College, in Boston, Mass.

He and his wife, Zetta, reside at Russell Hall, where she is dorm mother. They have three sons, Tom an NEO sophomore; Phil, who recently received his doctorate from the University of Georgia; and Jim, an NEO graduate who is now employed at B. F. Goodrich, Co. in Miami.

Jan Salzman Selected To Represent October

By Barbara Hooper

Fall has settled on the NEO campus and as is the tradition of the season, beauty has accompanied it, this month in the form of Miss Jan Salzman.

Jan, a freshman majoring in fine arts, has lived in Tulsa all her life and was a graduate of Tulsa Central where she was a member of the National Honor Society with a 3.8 grade average. She also attended Tulsa Vo-Tech where she took courses in commercial art.

A busy semester has begun for the 5' 2", blue eyed brunette, who along with carrying 17 hours is also a member of the Home Economics club and is participating in intramurals in volleyball and archery.

Hobbies play an important part in Jan's activities. She likes to dance to psychedelic and classical pop, particularly to the tunes of the Doors and Beatles. This petite young lady enjoys skiing, swimming, ice skating, sailing and is looking forward to taking part in one of NEO's favorite pastimes . . . dirt surfing.

Favorite things in life compile a long list for Jan who among other things loves football, dogs and children sports outfits and mini skirts. Evidently Jan says she "likes boys."

Future plans for Miss October include attending TU and upon graduating, work as a fashion illustrator for a newspaper, magazine or advertising firm. Her secret ambition is to become an airline stewardess and travel. As for the distant future, Jan says she hopes to marry someday and raise a family.

Being a part of the NEO campus has been an exciting factor in Jan's life. She feels one of the outstanding qualities of the campus is the friendliness of the students. Jan says, "Although I'm basically shy, I enjoy meeting people."

Jan's father, Richard, is an inspector for Douglas Aircraft in Tulsa. Her older brother is also employed there.

Winter follows Fall and the beauty fades, yet a beauty such as Jan Salzman, Miss October, remains to cheer the atmosphere of the NEO campus.

NEO Aggies Choose Victor And Clifford

Northeastern A&M's Aggie society has selected Sue Clifford and Becky Victor as Aggie Princesses.

Sue, a sophomore home economics major from Copan, is a member of the Aggie club, home economics club and maquers club. Upon graduating from NEO, Sue plans to continue her major at Oklahoma State University.

Becky, an Afton freshman, is majoring in fashion merchandising. She is a member of the Aggie club and is student senate representative for the home economics club. She was first runner up in the Junior Miss Contest in Ottawa County. Becky's future plans include attending OSU.

Yearbook Staffers Chosen For 68-69

Northeastern A&M's yearbook staff for 1968-69 has been chosen along with the theme for this year's publication.

Editors in staff for this year are, yearbook editor, Linda Tallon, Afton; assistant editor, Connie Geren, Commerce; faculty and administration, Jan Garman, Afton; royalty, Brenda Piquet, Tulsa; sports, DeAnn Gamble, Welch; activities, Carol Sanders, Miami; organizations, Dee Ann Watson, Grove; freshman class, Diane Dufield, Afton; sophomore class, Wanda Leffer, Grove; staff artists, Darrell Gilbert, Tulsa and Fred Borgman, Bartlesville.

Other staff members include Vicki Halden, Talala; Doris Lawrence, Tulsa; Kathy Hoppock, Edna, Kans.; Marilyn Williams, Vinita; Cheryl Roe, Grove; Melva Pritchard, Grove; Etta Robinson, Tulsa; Connie Clements, Oologah; Suzanne Seltz, Tulsa; Susan Giddens, Tulsa; Donna Troclair, Tulsa; Jim Vogel, Bartlesville.

Student senate representative for the Viking staff is Jan Garman and as alternate, Dee Ann Watson. This is the first year that the Viking has had representation in the senate in hopes of becoming familiar with activities of the clubs and organizations on campus.

"50th Anniversary" is the theme chosen by the staff for this year's Viking, in conjunction with the celebration of NEO's golden anniversary.

Ambassador Club Under Way

Forty-six leaders of the Ambassadors club recently held a picnic at Grand River Dam.

The clubs will hold a party tonight to celebrate the completion of the homecoming float.

Patty Burnes has been chosen as the Ambassador club queen. She is a Miami sophomore majoring in Arts and Sciences.

Green Returns Seven Lettermen This Season

Coach Cletus Green's 1968-69 edition of the Golden Norsemen basketball team will be relatively inexperienced, but, if the first week's practice is an indication, will not lack hustle and desire to ake up for it.

Gone from an NEO team that posted a 24-9 record are starters Jerry Holderby of Colcord, and Dave Lofton, Terry Johnson, Jim (aldren, Ron Young, and Ron "Moore" Johnson along with reserve guards Larry Moyer and Johnny Checotah.

RETURNING SOPHOMORES The most experienced of the seven returning sophomores is Dennis Arnold, a 6-4, forward from Collinsville, Ill. Arnold was sixth man most of last year and finished the season with 140 points.

Also coming back to the Blue and Gold are Fred Jackson 6'4, (forward from Tulsa Washington), Bill Hurley 6-1, guard from Del City, Louis Vann 5-9, guard from Tulsa Central, Mark Hancock 6-6 center from Newport, Ky., Mike Wilkinson 6-4 center from Pawnee, and Donnie Barr 6-1 guard from Minco. Barr was student-manager for the team last year.

Would you like to be refused Sunday dinner on the grounds that you were improperly dressed? Several of the male students on our campus were faced with just that problem Sunday, October 6. The problem is, however, that they WERE properly dressed!

It was brought to the attention of several students that their turtlenecks were no longer considered to be appropriate for Sunday dinner. This regulation, which was supposedly passed by the Student Senate, was news to several of the Student Senate members. Even one of the students that was turned away because of his turtleneck is on the Student Senate!

Although some individual's ideas may be inflexible, styles are not. Today turtlenecks are considered as appropriate as are ties for such an occasion as is in question here. The purpose for certain rules regarding Sunday dress in the cafeteria is easily understood, for it is only right that the student body should put forth some effort to look neat and presentable to the public at Sunday dinners. This, though, is no reason for putting such unnecessary restrictions on what we are allowed to wear in the cafeteria. The main objective is that our appearance is appropriate. Turtlenecks DO meet this requirement!

Freyjas Honor New Members

The Order of Freyja of Northeastern A&M recently held an honors dinner to honor six new members.

Women students living in college housing who have maintained a grade point average of 2.5 or better while carrying 15 or more solid hours during a semester are selected as members of the society, according to Mary Roddy, dean of women and sponsor of the group.

New members honored for their scholastic achievements during the 1968 spring semester were Jackie Poeling, Oklahoma City; Carolyn Kammerzell, Vinita; Carol Chopper, Jay; Karen Mitchell, Pryor; Linda Tallon, Alton and Judy Benefiel, Bartlesville.

Members of the Order of Freyja returning again this year are Nancy Gordin, Bartlesville; Diana Long, Bartlesville; Frances Horner, Henryetta; Joyce Basen, Henryetta; Pam Cooper, Claremore; Alice Blue, Del City; Patricia Heyl, Bartlesville; Carolyn Barton, Commerce; Glennella May, Tulsa; Anita Moody, Bartlesville; Kathy Supernaw, Tulsa; Mary Kaufman, Tulsa; Lois Christenson, Pierre, S.D.; and Paula Hart, Bartlesville.

Dr. Bruce G. Carter, NEO president addressed the scholars and Dean Roddy presented traditional engraved silver charms to the six new members.

Norse end John McGivern was snapped as he grabbed a 19-yard TD pass from QB Steve Watson in Northeastern A&M's 34-13 victory over Chicago Wilson.

Norse Shine As Trojans Fall, 44-19

Green Returns Seven Lettermen This Season

Rebounding from a 34-0 thumping suffered the week before coach Bowman's Norsemen put on an offensive display as they rambled past the Trojans of Trinidad, Colo., 44-19 on Oct. 5 at Robertson field.

WATSON HITS AERIAL

Steve Watson led the offensive explosion as he threw four TD passes and rushed for one touchdown. Watson's aerials were to end John McGivern for 48 yards, flanker Jon Harison on a play which covered 75 yards and two passes to tailback Terry Ash, one for 24 yards and the other for 35 yards. Ash also scored as he ripped through the left side for two yards. Watson scored the sixth Norse TD by plunging through right tackle for one yard. Defensive lineman Jim Riddle grabbed a Trojan pass and raced 67 yards to put the icing on the Norsemen's cake.

TROJANS SCORE

Trinidad scored three times. Once by the air on a 66-yard pass play and twice on ground-gainers of 86 yards and 46 yards. The Trojans carried a 3-1 season record into the contest but they fell prey to an awakening of the Norsemen offense.

NORSE GAIN WIN

NEO led Trinidad in total yardage with 480 to 417 as they rushed for 195 yards to Trinidad's 325 and passed for 294 yards to the Trojans 92. The Norse had four passes stolen while Trinidad had none and NEO recovered four Trojan miscues without allowing one.

Coach Cletus Green's 1968-69 edition of the Golden Norsemen basketball team will be relatively inexperienced, but, if the first week's practice is an indication, will not lack hustle and desire to make up for it.

Green from an NEO team that posted a 24-0 record are starters Dave Lofton, Terry Johnson, Jim Waldren, Ron Young, and Ron "Moose" Johnson along with reserve guards Larry Moyer and Johnny Checotal.

RETURNING SOPHOMORES

The most experienced of the seven returning sophomores is Dennis Arnold, a 6-4, forward from Collinsville, Ill. Arnold was sixth man most of last year and finished the season with 140 points.

Also coming back to the Blue and Gold are Fred Jackson 6-14, forward from Tulsa (Washington), Bill Hurley 6-1, guard from Del City, Louis Vann 5-9, guard from Tulsa Central, Mark Hancock 6-6 center from Newport, Ky., Mike Wilkinson 6-4 center from Pawnee, and Donnie Barr 6-1 guard from Minco. Barr was student-manager for the team last year.

FRESHMAN RECRUITS

To back the sophomores, coach Green recruited 12 very capable freshmen. The first-year cagers are: Larry Brown, 6-1 guard, and Rinaldo James, 6-3 forward, both from Brooklyn, N.Y.; Tom Wolfe 6-0 guard from Boston, Mass.; Tom Pate 6-1 guard from Houston, Tex.; John Hoover, 6-4 forward, and Chuck Burton, 6-0 guard, both of Geary, Ind.; Frank Cornejo, 6-2 forward from Wellington, Kans.; Rob Richardson, 6-4 forward from Paola, Kans.; Corum Turner, guard from Crab Orchard, Ill.; Elam McDaniels, 6-3 center from Charlotte, N.C.; Vince Williams 6-3, forward from St. Louis, Mo.; and Sam Fleming, 6-3 forward from Pryor. Dan Brown of Wapakoneta, Ohio, Mike Hodges of Owasso,

Jerry Holderby of Colcord, and Ray Hill of Mounds made the squad after tryouts for boys not on scholarships.

FIRST SCRIMMAGE

The Norse will scrimmage Kansas State Teachers' College of Pittsburg, Oral Roberts University, Northeastern State, Missouri Southern, and possibly Parsons, Kans., to prepare for their opening game in the Crowder Classic in Neosho, Mo., on Nov. 22-23.

Intramural Highlights

By Bill Hurley

Competition has begun in six categories in the Northeastern A&M intramural program with a seventh sport, football, to begin next week, according to Cletus Green, physical education director.

Three boys hold a lead in a field of 31 after the first round of the archery competition with scores of 26. The trio, Steve Williams, Jesse Staggs, and Roger Robinson, are four points ahead of their closest challengers, William Alley and James Froneberger.

In bowling, Ronnie Trease rolled a fine 202 to pace the opening round held at Playland Lanes. Still within striking range are Garrel Simpson at 193, Stephen Laws with 180, and Larry Farquhar at 174. A total of 37 reglers are competing.

Dennis Story is leading 19 other boys in horseshoes. With a score of ten, he holds a four-point margin over Andy Finico and Lawrence Barnes.

The Miami Marauders, the NEO Red Sox, the Red Raiders, and the Dirty Dozen won opening round games in the double-elimination softball tournament. The other squads in the 16-team tournament are the Saints, Bums, Cardinals, Bluejays, Hustlers, and Mod Squad. The finals are scheduled for Monday, Oct. 28, on the north field.

First round action in the 11-team touch football tournament begins Tuesday, Oct. 29. The teams include the Dirty Dozen, Big Kids, Little Kids, Disciples, Big Red, Lucky 13, Indians, Fighting Irish, NEO Cowboys, Packers, and Soul Brothers.

Jesse Ballou streaks 32 yards for a TD after intercepting a Chicago Wilson pass. His blocking escort (22) is Ralph McGill.

TU Gales Down Norse

Led by the crafty quarterbacking of freshman James Stuemky and a stingy defense, the Tulsa University freshman surprised Northeastern A&M's fourth-rated Golden Norsemen, 20-14, at Robertson Field on October 12.

The defeat was the second in three weeks for coach Chuck Bowman's defending national champions, who also lost to Kilgore, Tex., 34-0. It was Tulsa's opening game.

STUEMKY SCORES ONE

Stuemky, an all-stater last year at Newkirk, passed for two touchdowns, including the winning one a 10-yard strike to former Tulsa Hale star, John Klahr, with 26 seconds left in the third quarter.

TU'S TOUGH DEFENSE

TU's defense turned the Norsemen back five times inside the 35-yard line. Heading the defenders was Glenn Slaughter, who intercepted two Steve Watson passes and also recovered a fumble to set up the winning tally.

David Moch put the Gales on the scoreboard with 92-yard punt return in the opening period. Tim Marrs converted the extra point for a 7-0 lead.

GALE'S LEAD 14-0

The tough Tulsans upped the advantage to 14-0 on an 80-yard pass-run play from Stuemky to Bill Robey.

NEO then came back to tie the first quarter, a two-yard plunge by Jay's Tom Dick in the third stanza, and two extra points by Terry Ash.

The loss dropped the Golden Norsemen's record to 3-2 and lowered them to 17th in the national standings.

Track Tidbits

By Monty Franks

Northeastern A&M's cross country track team were victorious in the triangular meet at Bacone Junior College in Muskogee, last Thursday.

Northeastern placed first with 26 points; Eastern A&M of Wilburton was second with 45 points and Bacone was third with 49 points.

Leading the local harriers was captain Roger Millsbaugh, who finished third in the three-mile run with a time of 15:05.

Following Millsbaugh were Norsemen Tom Lloyd, fourth, 15:14; Don Littlehawk, fifth, 15:20; Ron Williams, sixth, 15:33 and Vic Roubidoux, eight with 16:00.

Eastern's Hector Rocha won first place individual honors with a 14:37 time.

The local harriers now stand 2-1 for the season, having lost their opener at Wichita University and recently won the quadrangular meet at Eastern.

Totalling 35 points, Northeastern A&M's Harriers captured first place in a quadrangular meet at Eastern A&M college, Wilburton on Oct. 12 to even their season record at 1-1.

The final results showed NEO with 35 points, Eastern with 54, Murray State with 55, and Bacone with 60 points. Points are awarded to individual runners with one point for first place, two points for second, three points for third and so on. Points are awarded to only the first five boys that finish the race for each team.

Nineteen boys competed in the contest. The first eight finishers and their times were: Rocha, Eastern, 15:48.3; Daniels, Bacone 15:49; Millsbaugh, NEO, 16:04; Lloyd, NEO, 16:38; Williams, NEO, 16:40; Turner, Murray, 16:44; Roubidoux, NEO, 16:45; and Neighbors, Eastern, 16:48.

NORSE RATED SEVENTH

BARTLY CHAPPELL

Linebacker Chappell Aids Norseman's Hot Pursuit

Bartly Chappell, 6 ft. 1, 199, Minco sophomore has the distinction of being the top defensive player on the Northeastern A&M Golden Norsemen football squad.

In four games this season the powerful linebacker has made 30 individual tackles, 16 assists, and scored one touchdown.

During last Saturday night's 44-19 victory over the Trinidad, Colo., Trojans, he made 10 individual tackles, seven assists and broke up two passes to be the top defensive player of the game. Three of his individual tackles and two assists were made in five plays when the Norsemen halted the Trojans on Northeastern's own goal line.

In the Norsemen's season opener with Centerville, Iowa, he was a defensive standout having led the charge which stopped the Iowans on the Norse two-yard line late in the ball game. Also he intercepted a pass and rambled 17 yards for a TD to enable the Norsemen to edge a 15-14 victory.

Chappell had an outstanding high school career at Minco, where he played linebacker, tackle and blocking back.

During his senior year he served as co-captain and primarily in the blocking position. He was outstanding in this capacity having caught 25 passes with three of them of 48, 66, and 70 yards TD's. That year he scored a total of 50 points.

Chappell's head coach his senior year was Don Rominger, who is now an Asst. coach with the Norsemen.

According to Rominger, Chappell is considered to be one of the few outstanding football players and major four-year college prospect to ever graduate from Minco High School.

Although Chappell did not receive any all-state honors his senior year, he was listed as one of Oklahoma II most sought after defensive players on the Oklahoma Journal newspaper all star squad.

He also received enough recognition to be noticed by the University of Oklahoma, but they advised him to attend Northeastern A&M for two years in order to make the adjustment from a small high school to college.

Last year Chappell was an outstanding defensive tackle for the Norsemen, but head coach Chuck Bowman told him during spring workouts that if he would lose 10 pounds over the summer he would move into the linebacker position.

To lose the necessary pounds, Chappell along with his teammates and roommate, Jerry Mitchell, 6' 3" 191, lbs. starting tackle, spent their summer baling hay and doing other various ranch and farm jobs.

Norsemen Face Golden Norsemen Maul

No. 2 Panthers At Homecoming

Northeastern A&M will climax their annual homecoming activities as the Golden Norsemen meet the Panthers of Ferrum, Va. on Robertson field tomorrow night at 8 p.m.

The Norsemen, who dropped to the 17th position in the weekly junior college ratings last week, will be out to win their second straight ball game as they tangle with the fourth ranked Panthers who at press time had a record of 6-0. Last week the Norsemen trounced the previously unbeaten Raiders of Chicago Wilson, 54-13, with the best offensive showing by the Norse this season.

Through their first three games, the Panthers were lead by sophomore quarterback Butch Dusharm. Dusharm has scored three touchdowns in as many games on 31 carries for 229 yards and an average of 7.7 yards per carry. In the passing department, Dusharm has attempted 42 passes and completed 22 for 228 yards and two TD's. He has tossed three interceptions. Ferrum has defeated Frederick Military, 21-7; Newport News, 17-3; Wesley, 27-0; East Tennessee State, 47-0; Chowan, 45-27; and Gardner-Webb, 21-7.

Leading the Norse offensively will be quarterback Steve Watson, fullback Mel Riggins and tailback Terry Ash. Watson has thrown 54 complete passes out of 104 attempts for 690 yards and six TD's this season. Riggins is the leading rusher with 45 carries for 296 yards and an average of 6.1 and two touchdowns. Ash is the leading Norse scorer with 50 points.

Golden Norsemen Maul Chicago Wilson, 54-13

Scoring 20 points within the first 11½ minutes, the Golden Norsemen planted the first loss of the season on Chicago Wilson as they mauled the Raiders, 54-13 before nearly 5,000 fans at Robertson field last Saturday night.

NEO Host Track Contest At Local Park

General director and head track coach, Don Rominger, has announced that Northeastern A&M will host the first annual Oklahoma Junior College conference cross-country track meet at Riverview Park, tomorrow.

Colleges expected to be in attendance are Oklahoma Military Academy, Claremore; Murray State were Tishomingo; Connors, Warner; Northern of Tonkawa; Eastern A&M, Wiburton and NEO.

Assisting Rominger will be Tolle Bibb, coach of the Norse cross-country team. This is the first time in the history of NEO that a cross-country team has been fielded. Competing on the Norse Harriers are captains Roger Millsbaugh, Tulsa; and Tom Lloyd, Muskogee. Also running for NEO are Don Little Hawk, Okla. City; Ron Williams, Del City; Vic Roubidoux, Perkins; and Charles Holt, Tahlequah. Don Anderson, Tulsa will serve as the team's manager.

The remainder of the Harriers schedule is as follows:

- Nov. 16 National Jucos — Lawrence, Kans.

The Scoreboard

BY MONTY FRANKS

The Golden Norsemen are out to rejoin the victory trail as they tangle with Ferrum, Va. tomorrow night to climax a day of homecoming activities.

The Norsemen showed near perfect form last week as they defeated Chicago Wilson by the score of 54-13. Tailback Terry Ash scored two touchdowns and booted the first two field goals of the season for the Norse. Steve Watson displayed fine leadership ability as he directed the offense most of the game.

Mother Luck will be on the Norsemen's sideline the rest of the season as they face their toughest opponents the next three games since each team that they play is so far undefeated.

This reporter will not try to predict the outcome of tomorrow night's game because he has not picked a winner in large college ranks since he predicted that the St. Louis Cardinals would win the World Series in five games. I made the mistake of entering a pot with coach Tiger and coach Maxwell in which we bet on each game. The final game coach Tiger had the number four. I've never seen a tame Indian go as wild as he did when Shannon blasted the home run in the last of the ninth to make the final score 4-1. How did your cigar taste, coach? He almost gagged on it.

On the track scene, our congratulations go out to coach Tolle Bibb and his Harriers who are off to a bright start in the cross country field. The Harriers carry a 2-1 record into the tournament to be held tomorrow at the Riverview Park.

Returning to the gridiron scene, we also congratulate Stan Beeley who received the outstanding player award for his performance in the Drut Bowl held every Monday on Robertson field. Stan showed fine running ability by scoring two touchdowns. The award was presented by Dick Frasca who was representing the players in the contest.

Until next time remember, "No matter where you go you'll always be there."

The Raiders held scoreless until the last quarter as the Norsemen defense stole six Wilson passes throughout the entire game.

Norsemen standouts on offense were tailback Terry Ash who scored the first two Norse TD's and kicked a pair of 38-yard field goals and kicked for six extra points for a total of 24 points.

Ash began the scoring by plunging off left tackle for three yards and the score. After a recovered Wilson fumble on the 26-yard line Ash again went off left tackle and dashed eight yards for the TD.

Defensive halfback Jesse Ballou picked off a Wilson pass and raced 32 yards for the next Norse touchdown. Ash added the extra point for a 20-0 score. End John McGivern took a 19-yard pass from quarterback Watson to boost the score to 27-0 with 14:24 left in the second stanza. This scoring drive was set up by a 37-yard return of an intercepted pass by linebacker Mark Driscoll.

With 11:37 left until the half, Dick Frasca held and Ash booted his first field goal from 38-yards out.

Defensive ineman Mike Wadzita got into the scoring act as he rambled 31-yards with a recovered Raider fumble to give the Norse a 37-0 lead at half time.

Ash made it two-for-two as he booted another 38-yard field goal to open the scoring in the second half. Tailback Larry Harris crashed over left guard for two yards with Ash adding the extra point to make the score 47-0 with 7:42 left in the third stanza.

With 11:46 left in the final quarter the Raiders got on the score board as they picked off a Norse pass at the 20 yard line. On the next play, the quarterback skirted around left end for the score.

Fullback Mel Riggins scored the final Norse TD as he dashed around left end for four yards and the score. Riggins scored another touchdown only to have it called back on a clipping penalty. Outstanding kickoff ability was displayed by freshman Dick Holloway as most of his kicks landed in the endzone.

After taking the final Norse kickoff, the Raiders marched 77-yards to make the final score 54-13.

JOE HORSCHEL

Coach Praises Horschel's Dedication To Football

Many college football players can be average but to be outstanding a person has to truly be dedicated to the sport. This dedication is what has made Joe Horschel, 6-1, 187, center for the Northeastern A&M Golden Norsemen an outstanding player for two consecutive years and an All-American juco candidate.

Norse Coach Chuck Bowman declared that Horschel is definitely dedicated and apparently loves to play football more than anyone else on the team. "It doesn't make any difference whether he is playing in a game or participating in laps or wind-sprints he hates to come in second best," Bowman said.

"He definitely turns in a yoman's performance each game and has a tremendous competitive spirit," he added.

"Centers are probably at a greater disadvantage than any other member on a ball club, primarily because his first obligation is to snap the ball and then block an opposing linebacker. After snapping the ball he is at least one-half step behind the offensive members and he has to be able to move fast to block the ball carrier," Bowman said. "Joe does this very well and is consistent in every game."

Horschel said that blocking the linebacker is one of the biggest changes he has noticed in adjusting from high school to college football, because most of the high schools play a defense where the center does not block the linebacker but blocks an offensive lineman. "Blocking the offensive lineman is much easier to do because the linebacker is constantly moving when the ball is in motion and you have to catch him first before you can even try and block him," Horschel said.

A native of Eau Gallie, Fla., Horschel was named the Norse offensive lineman of the week for his outstanding performance against the University of Tulsa Freshman Gales.

Horschel, like many fine football players, grew up playing the game. When he was 11 years old he played in a midget league and was one of the boys picked from Florida who traveled all over the southeastern part of the U.S. playing games with other teams. That year his team was invited to the "Disney Bowl" in California to play for the midget championship of the U.S. but could not attend due to financial reasons.

Also, he lettered four years in high school and in his junior and senior years was voted the most valuable player and was named to the Tri-County All-Star team.

Horschel, who was steered to Northeastern by the University of Florida, hopes to attend that university on scholarship after completing two years of his formal education here. He plans to acquire a degree in Marine biology. Upon receiving his degree he hopes to become a teacher and coach football.
