Student Council Plans Activities For New Year

BY ANN MOCHIA

Student Council members are keeping pretty busy at the beginning of a new school year. Elected officers for this year are Skip Holloway, vice president; Gail Little, secretary-treasurer; Leroy Johnson, and Jeanne Burger, representatives-at-large.

Passing out pamphlets for the bloodmobile has been the highlight of council members. They are trying to get the students from school to donate blood to this worthy cause. They have also been distributing school calendars to the dorms, Student Union, and presidents of clubs.

Discussions by the members for an improved look to the entrance of NEO may develop into having lights put on top of the two brick posts, having the grills painted and the bricks refinished. Future student council meeting will be held on Tuesdays, in the Student Union, at 6:30 p.m. and is for anyone to attend.

New Members Join Faculty To Aid Expansion

NEO has added five newcomers to their staff. There are three new teachers, a new dean of women and a new bookstore manager.

Bob L. Foote is a newcomer in the mathematics department. Born near Spanvinaw, he received a B.S. degree (with distinction) and Master's degree from the University of Oklahoma. Mr. Foote teaches Modern Math, a new course at NEO.

Charles E. Grimsley joined the speech and drama department at NEO this fall. He received his B.A. from Georgetown College in Georgetown, Ky., and his Master's degree from Northwestern University. Mr. Grimsley held a graduate assistantship in the theater department there.

Oscar N. Costan, Jr. is a new instructor in data processing with the Manpower program now in progress at NEO. Mr. Costan received his degree in mathematics from Bethany Nazarene College.

Miss Mary Roddy comes here from Southwestern State College at Weatherford where she was acting dean. Dean Roddy received her B.A. degree from Oklahoma College for Women, Chickasha, and her Master's of Education degree from the University of Oklahoma.

Mrs. A. L. Taylor is the new manager of the NEO bookstore. She is the wife of A. L. Taylor, head of the I.B.M. department at NEO. Mrs. Taylor has worked in the publishing and printing department of Oklahoma State University and as curator of the Atomic Museum in Idaho Falls, Idaho.

FREE MOVIES SCHEDULED

The Wednesday night movies, which have proved so popular in the past are again being scheduled for this year. Ten movies will be shown this semester.

Dean Cecil Ferree Returns To College

Dean Cecil Ferree has returned to serve another prosperous year at NEO, after returning from a year of post Doctoral study at Wayne University in Detroit, Michigan, under a Kellogg Grant.

While in Detroit, Dean Ferree studied junior college movements in organization, administration, and curriculum planning. Ferree also studied with some Michigan junior colleges for three months, to obtain new ideas in enrollments, curriculum, and general problems. The Dean also studied in his major field, which is Political Science. He summed up his adventure as being "very profitable."

Upon his return to NEO, Dean Ferree stated that NEO had a more evenly balanced and wider curriculum than other schools of the same type which he had visited. He was enthused over the new IBM facilities, which were introduced last year.

Classes Elect First Semester Officers

One of the main events of the beginning of any new college year is the organization of classes and the election of class officers. Since the officers and sponsors are the heart of class activities and planning, the elections can be one of the most important phases of beginning a successful year on any college campus.

The current sophomore and freshman classes held their first semester elections, Tuesday, Sept. 17.

Charles Campbell, music major from Miami was elected as class president; Bob McCullough, English major from Mt. Dora, Fla., will serve as vice-president; secretary will be Sandy Goff, a speech major from Bixby, Okla.; Treasurer is Judy Cottam, Elementary education major from Miami; representatives at large, Howard Glen forestry major from Tulsa and Donna Turney, business major from Sand Springs.

The class reporter is Jeanne Terrill, a business major from Collinsville. Linda Madden a business major from Pryor and Janet Kerpan a business major from North Chicago, Ill., were selected as class cheerleaders.

The Sophomores have elected Oran Need and John Hazelton as their class sponsors for 1963-64.

Class president Campbell has announced that the theme for the sophomore homecoming float will be Japan, and that a committee will be selected soon for work on the float. Another project currently under way is the printing of class membership cards which will be available to all sophomores for a slight fee. These cards will entitle class members to entrance to all sophomore class events.

The freshman class, meeting in the gymnasium, elected officers and sponsors.

John Carter, political science major from Miami was elected as president of the class. Darrell Wilson, engineering major from Miami is the vice-president; secretary is Kendall Harrell, music major from Chelsea; treasurer is Richard Ball, business major from Miami; and the student council representative are Danette Mailath, education major from Commerce and Richard Enyart of Wyandotte.

Homa Thomas and Jack Rucker were elected by the Freshmen as their class sponsors.

Freshman activities planned for the first semester include a dance to be held in the Civic Center on Thursday Oct. 17, featuring Connie and the Bellhops. The dance will be free to all students having freshman or sophomore class membership cards. The charge for off campus dates will be one dollar and the dance will be held under campus rules.

Norse Wind Staff Members Selected For Fall Semester

Staff members of the NORSE WIND have been selected for the fall semester according to James R. Bond, Adviser.

Gary Garton, sophomore journalism major from Miami, has been selected as editor.

Acting as assistant editors will be two Miami girls, June Johnson and Ruth Ann Wolf.

Sports editors will be Gene Crockett and Phil Graham, both are sophomore journalism majors from Picher.

Clay Allen, Jr., sophomore journalism major from Picher, will be make-up editor. Nancy Schooley, Quapaw, and David Sigsworth, journalism major from Scotia, N.Y. will act as assistants. Advertising manager will be Ed Jennings, freshman journalism major from Bartlesville.

Photography will be handled by Mike Grimes, sophomore from Grove, and Clay Allen, Jr.

Bloodmobile Results

In a close bloodmobile race Thursday, the Sophomore edged out the Freshmen 60 to 59. Robb Bartlett, chairman of the blood program for Ottawa county announced the results. Winning the free airplane rides were: Herman Swanson, James Putnam, Thomas Huffman, Beverly Vincent, Thomas Winn and Larry Green.

THE CLUB CORNER

BY JUNE JOHNSON

The beginning of school is the scene of great activity on college campuses everywhere. Northeastern Okla. A&M is no exception.

NEO students have been busy organizing and reorganizing the numerous clubs on campus. Officers have been elected and plans for the year made.

PHI THETA KAPPA

"Best organization on campus", says Mrs. Doris Burnes, sponsor of the Phi Theta Kappa, an honorary scholastic fraternity.

Leading the group this first semester is Larry Coltrane, sophomore from Cherokee, Kansas.

Helping Larry will be Calvin Flaharty, first vice-president; Terry Hedeman, second vice-president; Janice Cox, third vice-president; Deanne Brewster, secretary; Cheryl Martin, treasurer; Jana Lyn Irwin, reporter; and Bill Layton, student council representative.

At their first meeting of the year, the members of Phi Theta Kappa discussed ways of raising money for homecoming. The theme for their float was also discussed and the group decided on the United States as their country.

ITS

Curtis Collins, a sophomore from Welch, was chosen to lead the Industrial Technology Society, better known as the ITS, for the first semester.

Other officers elected were John Greaves, vice-president; Bill Groaves, secretary-treasurer;

ENGINEERS CLUB

Election of officers and discussion of homecoming plans were the major items of business of the Engineers Club.

Elected for the first semester were Don Sanders, president; Ken Sudar, vice-president; Linda Brown, treasurer; Ann Athley, secretary; and Charles Foster and Marvin Tunnell, student council representatives.

Members of the club selected Greece as the theme for their float.

October 1, is the date set for election of Engineers Club queen.

LANGUAGE CLUBS

Danette Mailath and Billy Wilson were elected presidents of the Spanish and French Clubs, respectively, in their first meetings of the year.

To serve with Danette are George Grigsby, vice-president; Linda Robertson, secretary-treasurer; David Sigsworth, reporter; and Vonda Rose, student council representative.

Helping Billy in the French Club this first semester will be John Carter, vice-president; Nancy Schooley and Earl Dunkleberger, reporters; and Jimmy McLean, student council representative.

Editorial

It is customary for any person who claim's the title, "Editor", whether of a college paper or a metropolitan daily, to make regular statements of his own particular views on any subject. In short, an editorial.

It has also become almost a custom that the first such editorial of the year on a college publication should present a few words to students, as a sort of guide to college life.

For this issue however, we would prefer to present the views of someone who should be an authority on beginning college life, a freshman. The following thoughts recently crept from beneath the beanie of a freshman journalism student, and would seem to sum up the subject pretty well... (Editor)

REFLECTIONS OF A FRESHMAN

Now that the school year has begun and the confusion of enrollment and moving into dormitories is over the new freshman begins to see college life for the first time. At Northeastern Okla. A&M college the freshman is a special person, treated with concern by all.

The instructors and administrators help all freshman to find the way through the great maze of enrollment procedures and student activities, while the sophomores help remind them to wear their beanies.

The freshman soon discovers that college life is not all work, nor is it all play. Many events throughout the year help keep the average student busy; building floats, attending school sponsored club meetings, senior day, football games, dances and many other events.

Last, but not least, comes the studying. Cramming for tests, writing themes, and sitting in hot classrooms.

The freshman discovers that not all education takes place in the classrooms. The making of new friends and the mixing of varied backgrounds make for a broadening of the mind that can not be achieved within the classroom.

The freshman finds that all students are working for a goal and are making a record that will remain with them for the rest of their lives.

He soon discovers that the satisfaction which is connected with being a college student far out-weighs his problems. College students are a very select group in this world and one of the most important.

So freshmen, make the most of your college life and feel secure that you are going to one of the finest jr. colleges in the world.

BLAST OFF
BY LLOYD BUFFALO

As this new voyage down the paths of knowledge begins we would like to take this opportunity to bid welcome to all. We hope that this year will be one that is full of knowledge gained and friendships formed.

We would also like to welcome two very capable instructors to the AFROTC department at NEO, Lt. Col. Hardy L. Holt and Capt. Patrick Keith.

Lt. Col. Holt is the new head of the AFROTC program at NEO and instructs the Air Science II classes. He entered the Army Air Corps in January, 1942, and was commissioned in November, 1962. During World War II he served in training command and the Pacific Theater.

Recalled to active duty in 1951 during the Korean conflict after five years of inactive status, he served tours of duty in England, the Pentagon and with SAC in Spain.

Col. Holt received his BS degree from North Texas State Teachers College, Denton, and Master's of Business Administration degree from George Washington University, Washington, D. C.

Col. and Mrs. Holt have four children, Linda, 18 a freshman at NEO; David, 14; Gordon, 11; and Robert, 9.

Capt. Keith, joining the AFROTC staff as Air Science I instructor, comes to NEO from Itazuke Air Base, Japan, where he served nearly three years as base personnel quality control officer.

Capt. Keith received his BBA degree in management from the University of Oklahoma and has completed work toward an MBA degree. Capt. and Mrs. Keith have two sons, Arthur, 9, and Randy, 8.

Feel free to discuss any problems you may have with Col. Holt, Capt. Keith or Capt. Hayes. These officers are not only here to instruct, but to advise and offer assistance through discussion of your difficulty.

Glancing out on the campus by the Life Science building you have probably noticed a group of young men drilling nightly. For you who do not know as yet this is the 1963-1964 edition of the AFROTC Drill Team. With the rigorous practice they have been going through the group is showing improvement with each practice. Keep up the good work boys and you will make a sharp marching unit.

Construction Of Parking Lot Underway At NEO

According to Don Dyer, Housing Director of NEO, the construction of a new parking lot is nearly completed. It is considered that it will handle all the parking problems on the campus.

The new parking area is located on the east and south part of Dyer Hall. Another parking lot is also planned for the east side of the Student Union.

Dyer also stated that the campus police have been instructed to issue parking tickets to cars parked between the buildings or at the entrance of the school, and to report any car not having a permit. This rule is in effect to provide the teachers and employees of NEO with ample parking space.

"FASHIONABLE FADS"
BY RUTH ANN WOLF

Throughout America, on every college campus, the right clothes, whether they be sporty or dressy, are important to most every student.

In this column, which will be featured during the year, I would like to present some of the more "fashionable fads" that college students are wearing to school as well as extra-curricular functions.

At this time of year, football is about the most important thing on college students' minds. Meredith Smith, freshman from Miami, and Bob Spencer, sophomore from Miami, are all set for the football season in clothes from the Hub in Miami. Hub's Ladies Sportswear Department furnished Meredith's clothes and Bob's clothes came from Hub's Traditional Shop, which caters especially to the young college man. Their shoes were furnished by the Hub Bootery.

Big Horn Gives Big Pain To NEO Band Depart.

"Yes, we have no sousaphone" is the theme song of the newly organized, 42-member, Northeastern Okla. A&M band.

Dr. Robert Swanson, band director, says that every year the band has some problems and this year it is no sousaphone player. Efforts have been made by all concerned but to no avail.

"We will just do the best we can without one", said Dr. Swanson, "but it is the first time in my career as a band director that I haven't had a sousaphone player".

The NEO chorus, containing 54 members, has many plans for the coming school year. Their first performance is scheduled for Oct. 6, at the Rotary Club dinner. Included on the program is one of the groups organized within the department, the male quartet. The ensemble consists of: Tenors, Larry Shackelford, Tulsa; Ronald Stowell, Miami; baritones, Bob Bethell, Tulsa; and Charles Campbell, Miami.

Another small group organized within the chorus consists of Luann Gillian, Tulsa; Ruth Hamlin, Quapaw; Kendall Harrell, Chelsea; Carole Holder, Drumright; Diane McCune, Tulsa; Verda Riehart, Collinsville and Wanda Surine, Adair.

Wesley Facilities Available For All Students

The Wesley Foundation is the Methodist church at work on the campus.

During the year the group, made up of students of various denominations, study the role of the church in relation to various social issues and the responsibility of Christian stewardship as a vocation. They seek to discover through worship, the role of the Christian student on campus. All students are welcome regardless of church affiliation.

The center is open every day until 10:30 P.M. There is special lighting to study by, table games, and lounging.

A Vesper service is held every Thursday from 6:00 to 8:30 P.M. On Sunday, a snack supper is served at 5:30 P.M. for the price of 35c. Following this is the Forum hour. The program last week was a film and discussion on moral problems which arise in campus life.

The topic of the next two weeks will be "Vocations—Christian Understanding" and "A Profile of College Drinking" with the discussion led by Dr. Ross McClellan, Oklahoma City.

There is a party planned for Friday, Oct. 4 at the home of Mr and Mrs. Dale West, 501 Bay Street. The theme of the party is a Hawaiian luau.

THE CLUB CORNER

Mrs. Doris Burnes, sponsor of both groups announced that the Spanish Club, in conjunction with the French Club, intends to take a 10-day trip to Mexico sometime this spring.

IK'S

The Inter-Collegiate Knights, although a small group, is an active one on the NEO campus. This year, with the leadership of John Bradsher, sophomore from Hominy, it hopes to continue its useful career.

Along with John, other officers of the organization are Raymond Worrell, vice-president; Charles Foster, secretary; Larry Coltane, treasurer; Marion Mitchell, student council representative; and Earl Dunkleberger, pledge master.

PRESS CLUB

David Sigsworth, a sophomore from Scotia, N.Y., was elected president of the Press Club at their first meeting.

Other officers elected were vice-president, Gene Crockett; secretary-treasurer, June Johnson; student council representative, Leon Jones; and homecoming chairman, Clay Allen, Jr.

MASQUERS

Bob Bethell, sophomore from Tulsa, was chosen to lead the Masquers Club this first semester.

Serving with Bob will be Alice Martin, first vice-president; Jeanne Burger, second vice-president; and Sandy Goff, secretary. Jeanne Burger was chosen to represent the Masquers as their queen.

Any campus organization desiring publicity on its activities should contact the Norse Wind office. Reporters of each club are invited to submit summaries of their meetings and any other information to any of the Norse Wind staff.

New Local Combo Recently Organized

The Lancers, a rock 'n roll combo consisting of three guitars, a bass guitar, and drums, was recently organized in the Miami area.

Two of the musicians, Dave Sigsworth, from Scotia, New York, and Jim Dixon, a Florida boy, are students at NEO. Both play lead and rhythm guitars.

The remainder of the combo consists of Arch Osborn, Picher, on drums; Jim Dolan, bass guitar; and Gordon Jones, rhythm guitar and vocalist. The latter two are from Miami.

The combo will play for the college mixers the first Wednesday of each month, and other school dances as well.

Plans are being made for weekly Saturday night engagements at the Miami American Legion Hall, as well as future dates in Kansas and other surrounding towns.

BSU Officers Are Chosen For Term

The Baptist Student Union began the new school year with newly elected officers which were chosen in the spring of last year.

The officers are: Charles Campbell, president; Nancy Crisman, secretary; Bob McCullough, enlistment of new members; Carol Burris, social chairman; Pam Knuckles, publicity chairman; George Grigsby, noonday services; Nancy Watkins, morning watch services; Earl Dunkleberger, missions.

One of the activities planned for B.S.U. members is a social each Friday night with refreshments and games. It will be held in the B.S.U. building.

The missionary teams will also be active again this year. These teams are made up of members who go to neighboring churches to conduct the morning or evening worship services. They present special music and the sermon is given by one of the members.

Charles Campbell, president, when asked if there were any other activities planned, replied, "To witness for Christ on campus."

New Look For NEO Cheerleaders

The sound of masculine voices issues once again from NEO's cheerleading squad. For the first time in several years, the Golden Norsemen are being cheered to victory by male and female yell leaders.

The cheering squad led by Sharon Nelson, a sophomore from Tulsa, consists of eight girls and six boys.

What is the student body reaction to this new innovation? Sharon says, "At first kids were not too enthused about the idea, but I think now everyone is behind us fully."

The cheerleaders have been practicing faithfully on many new cheers. Several have been made with the boys especially in mind.

Boy's Dormitory Elects Officers for Coming Year

Bob Combs, sophomore from Collinsville, was elected to serve the boys' dorm, Dyer Hall, as president for the coming year.

Others officers elected were: vice-president, David Shaw, Collinsville; secretary - treasurer, Earl Dunkleberger, Wakita; student council representative, Jim Woodworth, Stark, Kansas; and song leader, Bob McCullough, Mt. Dora, Fla.

In addition to the dorm officers each of the three floors elected a president. They are: first floor, Marion Mitchell, Anderson, Mo.; second floor, Jerry Sutherland, Nowata, third floor, Lonnie Hobbs, Tulsa.

Proctor for the respective floors are: Jim Hildrith, Pryor, first floor; Ken McSarrow, Tulsa, second floor; John Bradsher, Hominy, third floor.

At the dorm meeting the boys decided to use "Sweden" as the theme of their homecoming float.

Norsemen Down Texarkana; Tyler For Opening Victories

BY GENE CROCKETT

Northeastern A&M's Golden Norsemen opened their 1963 football season in perfect football weather, with a 20-12 victory over the Bulldogs of Texarkana, Texas at Robertson Field, Sat., Sept. 24.

An overflow crowd saw Pete Moseley, 190 pound fullback from Miami, score all three of the Norse touchdowns, two for short yardage and one for 65 yards, that brought the fans to their feet.

The Bulldogs' Burnice Alderman, scored first on a play that covered 67 yards. Bob McCullough blocked the extra point attempted by Ed Torres.

Florencia (Speedy) Gonzales, kicked two extra points with George Kevern holding.

Richard Haynes, freshman from Sepulpa was awarded "line-man of the week" and Pete Moseley was awarded "back of the week." by the NEO Booster club.

The Golden Norsemen made it two in a row, by beating the Apaches of Tyler, Texas, on the Indians own Gridiron, by a 38-15 score Sat. Sept. 21.

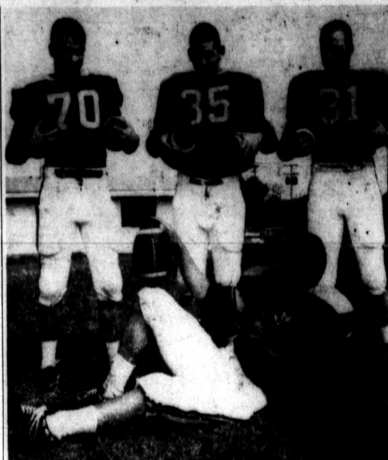

The Norse had to come from behind a 7-0 score after a scoreless first quarter, but they scored three touchdowns, the first one by QB Richard Ball from one yard out. The try for extra point failed. The Norsemen went ahead on passes from Ball to Gonzales and Horne in which Horne went across for a 12-7 lead.

George Kevern returned a punt 18 yards, to set up the third touchdown which covered 57 yards. Again QB Ball went across from 8 yards out. John Watson kicked the extra point. At Halftime NEO 19-Tyler 7.

In the third period, Steve Snider recovered a Tyler fumble, Kevern passed to Horne for the T.D. Watson missed the try for extra point, the score 25-7, Norse leading.

Kenneth Conduff intercepted a Tyler pass and made it to the two. The Apaches held the Norsemen for three downs, then on the 4th down, F.B. Pete Moseley bulled his way for a touchdown. Watson kicked the extra point, making it 32-7.

Tyler then scored on Charles

Dorm Officers Elected And Activities Planned

In an organizational meeting held Sept. 16, Carol Hilliard, sophomore from Grove, was elected president of the girls' dorm.

Serving with Carol for the

Walker's 30 yard run, Walker also ran the conversion, score 32-15.

NEO's final T.D. came on a 28 yard play from Ball to end Gonzales making the final score 38-15.

The Golden Norsemen's journey to Trinidad, Colo. where they meet the Trojans this Sat. night.

school year are Linda Wallace, vice-president from Lenap; Tommie Duffield, secretary-treasurer from Jay; and Bertha Lorenz, student council representative from Tulsa.

The dorm houses 103 girls this year. Sixty-eight are freshmen, thirty-five are sophomores. The only international student is Basemah Elcouly from Jordan.

Again this year the girls' dorm will join the Commons Hall boys' dorm in building a homecoming float.

The dorm has also resumed the idea of a monthly birthday party for the girls having birthdays in that particular month. A large cake is provided with the girls' names on it and punch is served.

FIELDHOUSE FACTS

BY PHIL GRAHAM

Well, here we are again sports fans, back for another, what looks like a very prosperous year for our heroic "Golden Norsemen."

However, the Norse have an enormous reputation to live up to being ranked No. 1 in the nation by the NJCAA, NEO, living up to that reputation, already has knocked off two of the top 10 teams, in the same rating, Texarkana and Tyler.

Coach "Red" Robertson has the material of another fine, as always, winning team.

A coach once told me that the fine teams are the ones who are behind with their backs to the wall and come out smelling like a rose. That is exactly what our Golden Norse have done. After being behind at halftime our Norsemen bounced back to beat Texarkana 20 to 12. Going into the second quarter they trailed 7 to 0 and came back to route Tyler 38 to 15. Let's hold our breaths, cross our fingers and maybe we'll go to Pasadena in December. Its a little far-fetched but things look good and nothing is impossible.

That brings us to the rough stage in the game, Trinidad! The Trojans, last year's Junior Rose Bowl champions, are undefeated as are the Norse, and will be out for blood against our much feared Norsemen.

An advantage for the Colorado ironmen is that the high climate will have effect on the low altitude Oklahomans. Coach Robertson left yesterday so that his boys might get used to this minor hazard.

Our Florida boys think Oklahoma is bad, wait till they get to the altitude of some 5099 ft. (I know I looked it up in the World Atlas). That's higher than Denver, the "mile high" city.

I was talking about our Rose Bowl chances, well, don't get your hopes up too high. Of the nine games Coach Robertson has, I believe eight were ranked in the top 10 in pre-season ratings of the National Junior Colleges.

And we must never overlook our rival, Cameron. Cameron is just like the Yankees, they're almost impossible to beat.

With a team like NEO puts on the field this year, I don't see any reason why this can't be Northeastern's year again.

Come on Norsemen, don't prove me wrong.

Andy Sixkiller of Jenks and Jim Wahnee of Dewey, who teamed together to make one of the greatest safety combinations in national juco football, especially on passing, have finally enrolled at NEO after a few days of absence from start of the fall term.

Sixkiller and Wahnee were outstanding quarterbacks in high school. Sixkiller worked out on the quarterback spot and on safety the first day of practice. Wahnee has yet to start.

Emory Harrison is also a newcomer to the Norsemen squad, he is a 205 pound center and is a transfer from Tennessee U.
